KENTUCKY VISITS WISCONSIN

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Free Accepted and Masons was organized in 1800 as we all are well aware of. What you may not realize is that we were the first Grand Lodge in the Mississippi Valley and that our original jurisdiction extended south to take in Mississippi and Louisiana, and north to take in the States of Illinois and Indiana. We issued Charters as a Grand Lodge to operate lodges in Mississippi, Tennessee, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Louisiana, Arkansas, and our beloved Kentucky. This formation of our Grand Lodge in Lexington cemented the bonds that ever bound the cities of the Bluegrass together and displayed to all that the Masons of Kentucky were among the foremost leaders of their day in everything that pertained to the welfare of their respective communities.

GREGORY C. POWELL Grand Master

It has been said that this Grand Lodge formation marked the greatest local Masonic event of the beginning of a new century, with the exception of a notable funeral procession in honor of George Washington, himself a member of the Fraternity. These musings were extracted from Masonry in the Bluegrass 1788-1933 by J. Winston Coleman, Jr., but let's take it one step further and understand from whence we come as a Grand Lodge.

As you know we are descendant from the Grand Lodge of Virginia, A.F.&A.M., but you may not know that they claim heritage to the Grand Lodges of Scotland, Massachusetts, England - both Ancient and Moderns; the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania and the Grand Orient of France (now nonrecognized for removing the name of GOD from their constitution). After electing the first Grand Master of Virginia in 1778, the Grand Lodge of Virginia establish 5 lodges in Kentucky, Lexington #25, Paris #35, Georgetown #46, Frankfort-Hiram #57, and Abraham's Lodge U. D. of Shelbyville which met on September 8, 1800 to form the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

According to the Proceedings Grand Lodge of Kentucky 1800-1900, William Murray, a bachelor and very eminent lawyer, Attorney-General of the State, and a man among men, of great foresight, force of character and excellent sense, who had the courage to stand alone in support of his convictions was elected our first Grand Master. He was a member of Frankfort-Hiram #57, now Hiram #4, and presented the address to the Grand Lodge of Virginia concerning the formation of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, which he is believed to have written. He later died on August 9, 1805.

Thus our first five lodges were known as Lexington #1, Paris #2, Georgetown #3, Hiram #4, and Solomon's #5. Let me close with some remarks from Alexander MacGregor of Lexington #25 in his circular letter to Grand Lodges in which he states, "Fully convinced of their right, and actuated by a desire to encourage the deserving brethren in their labors, and repress the irregularities of the unwary, we trust that our motives and conduct will be duly appreciated by the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of

We shall always stand by our convictions as Kentucky Freemasons that "United We Stand and Divided We Fall!"

As we were taught by our Instructors in the lectures of three Degrees of Freemasonry, we became acquainted with many "blanket" or "buzz" words that covers a broad area of a philosophy or description of a lifestyle and/or personal traits that define us as Masons; for instance, the three great Masonic Tenets of a Mason, Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth. They are short words – but mean so much when applied to the fullness of the life of a Freemason. The same can be said for the Four Cardinal Virtues, which are Temperance, Fortitude, Prudence, and Justice. Other such words that are freely used in our lectures which come to mind are Honor, Rectitude, Morality, Propriety, Integrity, etc...

Though, the words noted above refer to the positive side of Freemasonry, there are other words that suggest a negative connotation, words like Ignorance, Envy, and Superstition; words that describe the unholy conduct of the three misfits who brought shame to the Operative Masons at the building of the Temple. There are many other "blanket" or "buzz" words that can quickly paint a mental image in our minds, and remind us of our duties and obligations as a Mason, the same way the symbols of our Order do, and guide our conduct as Masons.

However, I think there is another such word that is not usually mentioned and is often overlooked in the lectures of Freemasonry, though maybe not always ignored, which describes a protocol that is most important to Freemasons, and, also, necessary to make all those words noted above meaningful. That word is Discipline! For all that Freemasonry is, it certainly sets guidelines for its members to follow, a discipline to practice self-control, and to exemplify orderly conduct; a discipline that should be the ultimate goal of every Freemason. So, let's make Discipline as much a part of the vocabulary of Freemasonry as all the other "blanket words" with which we are familiar. And let's remember that it's our personal discipline in striving to live by the Tenets of our Fraternity that keeps us that certain "point within a circle".

GRAND LODGE OFFICE CLOSED

The Grand Lodge Office will be closed Wednesday, July 4, 2007 in observance of Independence Day.

NOTICE

Section 217 of the Book of Constitutions requires that all motions on resolutions pertaining to amendments of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky shall be submitted in writing and received in the Office of the Grand Secretary no later than August 15, prior to the Annual Communication.

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

SERVICE AWARDS

By now you should have received, or will soon be receiving, your 50 & 60 year service award pins and 50 year service award cards. If you do not receive them by the 2nd week in July please contact one of the office staff at the Grand Lodge Office (502-893-0192). As soon as you receive the Service Awards from the Grand Lodge Office, they may be presented to the recipients immediately. The eligibility of each recipient has already been certified and the awards should be presented as soon as possible after they are received.

YEAR-END ACTIVITY REPORTS

The office staff is gearing up at this time to verify the various lodge activities for the past year and to prepare the Annual Return information for each subordinate Lodge. With the exception of only a few Lodges, the Monthly Activity Reports have been received promptly in the Grand Lodge Office insuring an accurate up-to-date account of each Lodge activity. I urge each Lodge Secretary to take care of this important duty as quickly as possible in order for the Grand Lodge Office to assemble the information for inclusion in the Annual Report and presentation at the Annual Communication in October. The sooner we have the information the quicker we can prepare the Annual Return of your Lodge for verification.

The Annual Returns should be ready to mail from the Grand Secretary's office the last week in July and, as Secretary, you should receive them around August 1, 2007. IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE THE ANNU-AL RETURN FOR YOUR LODGE BY AUGUST 10TH, YOU ARE INSTRUCT-ED TO NOTIFY THE GRAND LODGE OFFICE! Remember the deadline to return the verified Annual Returns to the Grand Secretary's Office is September 1, 2007. Payment of Lodge Assessments are also due at the same time. Late payment of Assessments and receipt of Annual Returns will cause a $1.00 per day penalty for each discrepancy to be levied until each are received in the Grand Lodge office.

The office staff and I express to each Lodge Secretary our appreciation for your dedication and efforts in keeping our records accurate and up-to-date.

Thought for the Month

I'll be more enthusiastic about encouraging thinking outside the box when there's evidence of any thinking going on inside it. — TERRY PRATCHETT

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality and compassionate services, health care and housing for adults

Dolly's home is a doll house

Ask for Eleanor Martin at Masonic Home of Louisville and you're likely to get a blank stare. Mention dolls and you'll be directed to 77-year-old Dolly Martin.

Since Dolly made the Masonic Home her home in 2001, she's become a tourist attraction. Other residents and their visitors, especially children, frequently stop in to admire Dolly's collection. Dolly's comfortable quarters include shelves that showcase the dolls. She even has paintings of dolls and a door wreath made of tiny dolls.

Dolly Martin shares her home at Masonic Home of Louisville with hundreds of dolls.

"Don't ask me!" Dolly responds when asked how many dolls there are. She's been collecting dolls since 1972, when her late husband gave her a beautiful baby doll in a vintage christening gown. Although her collection has expanded, that baby doll remains her favorite.

Dolly has geisha, American Indian and German dolls. There are handmade, porcelain and collectible dolls. There's a cat doll, a bear doll and some pouting dolls. Cabbage Patch dolls, Barbie dolls, antique dolls, new dolls and rare dolls line shelves and sit comfortably along Dolly's bed.

Staff and other residents have contributed to Dolly's collection. They've added a Pillsbury doughboy doll, a Las Vegas show girl doll and a 3-foot tall beauty that was discovered in storage. PC Nursing Supervisor Kim Sublett found an unclaimed doll in storage; that 3-foot doll is now part of Dolly's collection.

The most unusual doll is a worm that plays My Favorite Things.

Dolly's granddaughter adopted one of the dolls, but Dolly's not planning to part with another. "I'll just add more shelving," she says.

Worth a thousand words

Shelbyville team tracks to top in Relay for life

Angela Smither, Elisia Gnagie and Team Co-Captain Sally Jo Magness took a lap in stride.

It took washing some cars and launching bass boats, but the Masonic Home of Shelbyville Relay for Life team raised $6,242 for the American Cancer Society.

The amount marked an increase over the team's 2006 performance and also earned Masonic Home of Shelbyville the Silver award at the Shelby County Relay for Life May 19. The Home's booth, with a NASCAR theme, was honored as best decorated by Shelby County Relay officials.

Participating in the Relay is more than a community service project, said Administrator Debra Finneran. "We are building relationships with local businesses and leaders while supporting research for a cure to an illness that affects so many seniors," she said.

Since 1987, the Relay for Life has taken place in communities across the U.S., with more than three million people participating in the all-night walk to support the American Cancer Society.

Team Co-Captain Jennifer Mitchell accepted the Silver Award for fundraising.

More than 300 make Day of Service great

Masonic Homes of Kentucky Louisville and Shelbyville campuses got some help from more than 600 hands at the Great Day of Service in May.

Along with replenishing flower beds with plants and mulch, a gazebo and flower boxes were added to a courtyard in Shelbyville and stone walls were built to protect landscaped areas in Louisville.
