ANNUAL RETURNS

I want to express my appreciation, and that of the Office Staff, to most of the Secretaries and Treasurers of the constituent Lodges for their promptness in submitting their Annual Returns and assessments to the Grand Lodge Office. As of this date (September 10, 2007) we still have 24 Lodges who failed to submit their report by September 1, 2007. Last year we had 33 still out as of this date- congratulations!!

DUES CARDS

The membership dues cards should be in the hands of each Lodge Secretary by the time this issue of the Masonic Home Journal is delivered. If your records indicate a member was initiated prior to the June 30, 2007, deadline, but they did not receive a computer printed dues card, you need to contact the Grand Lodge Office. If you have not received the cards for your Lodge for 2008 or you need extra blank cards let the Grand Lodge Office know. Just a reminder, each of your 50+ year members also should receive a dues card.

ANNUAL COMMUNICATION

It is almost too late to mention anything about this 208th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky (October 15, 16, 2007) since it will soon be upon us by the time most of us receive the Masonic Home Journal. However, there is still time to rearrange your plans, if necessary, to attend the Communication to fellowship with your Brethren from all across this great Commonwealth and to tend to the important business of the Grand Lodge. I have again listed the hotel information below. Here's hoping to see many of you in attendance.

The Annual Communication this year will be held at the Galt House in Louisville, Kentucky, October 15, 16, 2007. You may phone the hotel direct or contact the hotel by letter to make reservations, if rooms are still available. We had to release the rooms we had blocked after September 13, 2007, and all reservations after the cut-off date will be accepted based upon availability. Also, the special rate may not apply.

Galt House 140 North Fourth St Louisville, KY 40202 To make a reservation call toll free at 1-800-THE GALT or 502-589-5200

You can also make your reservation on line at http://www.galthouse.com. The website contains a link for reservations as well as pictures and videos of the facility.

In either case, when you make your reservation, you should make it known that you are with the Grand Lodge of Kentucky;

2006-2007 GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

It has been another interesting year working with the Grand Lodge Offices-Elected and Appointed—as well as the District Deputy Grand Masters and Committeemen. As other Grand Masters have done in the past, Grand Master, Gregory C. Powell, has offered several new approaches and solutions to the problems that plague us.

Hopefully, together, we will find the right combination to the challenges that face us as we move further into the twenty-first century and strive to keep our Gentle Fraternity a viable force for the future.

OVER 200 KENTUCKY EDUCATORS NOW TRAINED IN THE MASONIC MODEL

Year two and now over two hundred educators have been trained in the Kentucky Masonic Model Program for Student Assistance to help identify children at risk.

Kentucky Masonry moved forward this year by adding a second training workshop and expanding the coverage area providing additional opportunities for teachers and administrators to attend the Kentucky Masonic Model.

The additional second workshop in Lexington, held at the Oleika Temple was host to 74 registered educators, just one short of the projected 75 goal set for the Lexington area.

The workshop held at the Masonic Homes Campus in Louisville had a goal of 100. Registration more than doubled its numbers in its second year with 110 as compared to the 48 in the original class in 2006.

The Masonic Model Student Assistance Program trains educators to be able to identify a child who may be at risk for destructive behaviors and what to do to turn them away from a negative cycle.

The Masonic Model program trains a team from within a school, because different individuals will notice different things and when a teams comes together to meet they can put a puzzle together to determine the seriousness of an issue a child may have.

This program is all about prevention and the means to which we can help prevent something bad from happing in a child's life. In the real of drugs, alcohol, violence, suicide it means keeping something bad or evil from happening or taking root in a child.

Kentucky Freemasons and Masons across our country are finding the means to offer their communities a method to prevent such a horror thru the Masonic Model Student Assistance Program. Already Kentucky has plans to increase the workshops to add two additional workshops in 2008 for a total of four, spread across Kentucky.

In Kentucky, in addition to the training, educators are also offered professional development hours and administrative leadership hours. The three day workshop grant's 21 hours credit of training hours of professional development or leadership to teachers and administrators from the Department of Education.

This year 21 hours of Continuing Educational Units (CEU's) from the Department of Human Resources for Social Workers in school systems were available who attended. Eighteen certificates for CEU's were granted this summer. Notice of this program acceptance was only granted by the Human Resources Board in April 0f 2007. Providing this training to schools districts at no cost can save a school a considerable amount of money in addition to the valuable training the Masonic Model provides. On the average, one (1) hour of professional development training outside the school district would an average $50-75 per hour. Using the low average it would cost the district a registration fee of $1050 to send an educator to a training of this type.

Teachers and administrators who have now attended the Masonic Model workshops are responding and have this to say about the program.

"I've been to a lot of conferences educating me about at-risk children, but this program actually gave me steps to take to do something about the problem instead of wringing my hands and saying 'Oh dear, what do I do about hi or her'" Michelle McConnell, Crittenden County Middle School.

"As an educator, I am exposed to many training programs. This was the most worthwhile presentations I have attended ever during my tenure" Jeff Koshel, Jefferson County Public Schools.

"Because of what I learned this week, I will have a faculty meeting with an overview of this great program. I will strongly encourage my staff to attend future workshops. The benefit for teachers is the ability to affect at-risk students that they want to help. This program is excellent; I can't wait to implement this process at my school." Michelle Hart, Principal, E-town Independent.

"I have been in education for 14 years and this is the best PD I have ever attended!" Travis Frigler, Doss High School

"Absolutely the most helpful training I've encountered in all the years I've been trying to find ways to help intervene in the lives of children to prevent or address at risk behaviors" Linda Schumann, Crittenden County.

"Thank you so much! Attending this workshop has shown me how caring Masons are about the education of children", Katrina Price, Jackson Independent.

"I have taken away many helpful as well as informative ideas for intervention. I plan to send a team from my school next year! This workshop is great!" Wanda Hurley, Principal, Phelps Elementary.

This last comment seems to sum up the program in a nut shell and says all there is to say about the second year for our Masonic Model program in Kentucky.

"I came with the intention of staying 1 day and returning to my office to my workload. I

"Over the years, the Homes has acquired some interesting properties," said Mission Advancement Director J Scott Judy. "Among those are more than 120 lots, crypts and internment spaces in seven Kentucky locations."

Several of the plots are in the Masonic Homes section of Cave Hill Cemetery and a Masonic section of Memorial Gardens West, both in the Louisville Metro area. Additional plots are in Resthaven and Evergreen cemeteries, also in Louisville.

Other plots owned by the Masonic Homes are located in Elizabethtown, Shelbyville, Covington and Russell.

Judy said the Homes can transfer ownership of the plots in exchange for payment that does not exceed the value of each plot or internment space. Values vary depending on location and the type of space. "We're offering Masons an opportunity to purchase these plots before extending the offer to the general public," Judy said.

Persons interested in learning more about the plots should contact Judy (phone: 502.259.9627; e-mail: jsjudy@mhky.com) for details.
