Right Worshipful Grand Lodge Officers, Most Worshipful Past Grand Masters, Worshipful Grand Lodge Appointed Officers, Worshipful District Deputy Grand Masters, Worshipful Grand Lodge Committeemen, Distinguished Guest From Appendant Bodies Masters, Wardens, Brothers, Family, Ladies, Friends and all, Welcome! First and foremost, I want to thank God for His blessings.

As I stand before you my heart humbled. Thank you for being here at the installation of officers for the 221st Grand Communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. It is a great honored for me to serve as the Grand Master of Kentucky. To have my name added to the long list of Great Men that also served this great fraternity.

I want to thank the installing officers: MWPGM Chris Stout, Installing Master, MWPGM Tim Sanders, Installing Marshal and MWPGM Geary Laird, Installing Chaplain. It's an honor and privilege to have these distinguished Past Grand Master's install me.

The one person in my life, I cannot thank enough, has given me more support than I could ever asked for. Never complaining, with all the days and late nights being gone, having to pick up the slack at home and with the family for the last serval years. My rock, love of my life, my wife Jackie.

On my journey here, we have lost my first-born Son "Nick", in 2015. Then this September 19", 2020, we lost Jackie's first-born Son "Curtis." How we wish Nick and Curtis, could have been here with us today. Nick left us two Grandsons that we are proud of, not only are they good men, but good brothers in my lodge.

Thanks, to my Brothers of James W. Alley #869, (known as The Alley Cats) with their support and encouragement throughout the years. I Love you all. I'm happy to have my sisters Shirley, Alma, my brother in laws, Bud and Jack with us here today. Love you, Sisters.

Thanks, for all the support from James, Darren, Keith, Don, and their ladies. To all the past Grand Masters that has given me guidance throughout the years. Congratulations to our new GJW Brother Richard "Dick" Short.

If I try to say thank you to everyone that has touched my life on my journal here, the names would be endless. So, thanks to everyone I do not mention.

I want to say that we, the Grand Officers with all my DDGM and Committeemen, will continue to work and keep Grand Lodge of Kentucky the Best Fraternity of Masons.

I hate that our Jr. MWPGM Geary Laird, had the hand dealt to him this past year. I do not envy the tuff decisions he had to make.

I have chosen the Masonic Level as my Grand Master's Statewide Traveling Level. As Masons, we are taught that all men are equal in the eyes of our Creator is a primary teaching that the Ancient Level represents. In Masonry the Level is used to remind members that we are all equal, in that everyone operates on the same level of time. The ideal behind the Grand Masters Traveling Level is to be rewarding, meeting other Masonic Brothers, and members that we are all equal, in that everyone operates on the same level of time. The ideal behind the Grand Masters Traveling Level is to be rewarding, meeting other Masonic Brothers, and gaining recognition for you and your lodge brothers.

As we start a new year we will go by the Constitution and the directives of the Governor. I am sure under the Governors directives there is not a lodge in Kentucky, that 3 brothers in a lodge can't open, do business as Master Masons, Starting from this date 10-20-20. My DDGM of all 30 districts will begin making their visits to all their lodges across the state of Kentucky.

Brothers if you or your lodge does not feel safe doing degree work, then don't do it. Just use common sense. If you feel sick or unsafe, please stay home. I am greatly confident that you have brothers in your lodge that will step up and keep things going until you can get back to your lodge.

Lodges stated meetings will be observed as, the Constitution states. If you meet twice a month and want to meet only once a month. Then, change your bylaws. We have been through many things in this fraternity. This Pandemic we will get through as well. We are men of character and principle. "God, Family First."

This year, Jackie and I have pledged our support to the Musical Therapy Program for the residents at Masonic Homes of Kentucky. There is no cure for dementia. Music is being increasingly used as a therapeutic tool for people with dementia. Therefore, we have chosen to establish a program for 2020-2021 called "Memories through Music."

Our goal is $20,000 to purchase musical instruments, in-room radios/cd players, musical therapy program costs, and provide live entertainment. Please help us in reaching our goal.

At this time, I am not handing down any guidelines to go by, nor, continuing any that has been handed down. We have our Book of Constitution and our Governor directives. So, with that being said, I put control in the hands of the Lodges to follow the Constitution and the Governor directives.

Let us go out on the Level and have a great year. May God bless us all and this great Fraternity.

Fraternally Thine,

Ernest C. Jackson

Badge of a Mason Program

A giving opportunity that supports Masons or widows residing in Masonic Homes Kentucky

Known for a legacy of community giving, today the Masons' tradition of philanthropy continues. Along with individual Masons, Masonic Lodges played an equally important role in the development of Masonic Homes Kentucky.

To honor this legacy of giving, Masonic Homes Kentucky introduced the Badge of a Mason Program in 2019. Funds raised from the program support Masons or widows that may need assistance while residing at Masonic.

Each year, a special apron is designed for each level of giving that features a rendering of an iconic landmark on the Masonic properties.

Levels of support include:

BRONZE: $1,500
SILVER: $3,000
GOLD: $5,000
PLATINUM: $10,000

For more information on the Badge of Mason program, contact Jason R. Wilson, senior vice president and chief development officer, Masonic Homes Kentucky, at 502.753.8861 or jwilson@masonicky.com.

"I Didn't Know That……"

In 1878, the Masonic Widows and Orphans Home Board reported that Brother James A. Hodges (Hiram #4) was teaching the printing trade to boys of the 'Home' and with-in five years, Volume 1, No.1, of the Masonic Home Journal was first published June 14, 1883, under the editorial guidance of H.B. Grant, Grand Secretary. However several Masonic news publications had previously been available and privately printed in Kentucky, including: "The Masonic Miscellany and Ladies Literary Magazine" in Lexington (1823), "The Masonic Mirror" (Covington)," The Kentucky Freemason" in 1868 (Frankfort), and of course, PGM Rob Morris's publications.

The Board purchased new printing equipment and the Grand Lodge sold subscriptions ($1.00 per year) to finance the expense of the newly published semi-monthly issue. Thus, "printed by the boys at the Masonic Home", the Masonic Home Journal became a reality, and in years following, the Grand Master published his decisions and the Grand Secretary was given a page for his use. Financing would soon be through a $1.00 annual assessment and include all Kentucky Masons. In 1965 the Journal became monthly, in order to save costs of printing and postage. The" Masonic Home" post office became a reality through the assistance of Senator Alben W. Barkley.

Perhaps one of the strangest Masonic stories concerning the Grand Lodge of Kentucky happened over 100 years ago during the Grand Mastership of George D. Winslow. It concerned a controversy between the editors of the Masonic Home Journal and Knights of Columbus.

Following the death of editor and Grand Secretary, H. B. Grant; C. Frank Mann, a former member of the Home, and Joseph W, Norwood of Lexington, became the editors. In 1915 David C. Rose was included as an editor. Rose was a member of St. Andrews No. 18, in Cynthiana. Along with Norwood, he entered into a controversy and the P.H. Callahan about the Knights of Columbus. Failing to notify the Grand Lodge, or any Grand Officer, the 'Masonic Home Journal' printed 20 questions for Callahan to answer about the Knights of Columbus. The Board quickly acted with all but Rose voting to discontinue the controversy. A St. Andrew's Lodge member wrote a letter to the Board in hope that the controversy with the Knights of Columbus would continue, but received a letter from the Grand Secretary, which he found, along with other lodge members, to be insulting and un-masonic.

A St. Andrew's Lodge committee circulated a letter of criticism of the Board of Directors and of course the Grand Lodge officers met with the Lodge and found that most members knew little of the letter. Letters went back and forth between the editors and Board of Directors, criticizing each other. More circulars were sent. The Board had a letter printed forbidding publication of religious and political debates in the Journal. Placed in the same issue was an editorial finding fault with the directors and claiming freedom of the press. The question was who was in charge of the Masonic Home Journal - the Board of Directors and Grand Lodge, or the 'Masonic Home Journal' editors?

Grand Master Winslow had printed a pamphlet "Let There Be Light" to explain his views to the Kentucky lodges. That was quickly followed by St. Andrew's Lodge (who seemed to support their committee) sending to the lodges a 71 page pamphlet containing their views. The 'Masonic Home Journal' was ordered to furnish each delegate with a copy of "More Light" the editor's response to "Let There Be Light" at Grand Lodge. Then at the Grand Lodge meeting a resolution of seven items containing in part that the Board had acted appropriately; St. Andrews Lodge didn't know or approve of the actions of the lodge committee including the sending circulars; the Grand Master had on occasion been imprudent; and the settling of the whole matter by stating that "The Masonic Home Journal" was the property of the Home, and therefor subject to the Board of Directors.

Today, the Masonic Home Journal, the oldest continuously published Masonic Newspaper in the United States; the Official Organ of the Grand Lodge; no longer "printed by the boys of the Masonic Home"; is far superior to the old black and white newspaper of yesteryear. Its creative layout and colorful presentation makes it a pleasure to read and enjoy. Editor Jon S. Dawson (239) goes to great length, month after month to give us a beautiful, full and detailed issue, which one can appreciate and be proud of. Thank you Jon! ----------What do you think?

Both pamphlets, "Let There Be Light" and "More Light" are available at the Covington Scottish Rite Library.

You can visit your MLMA – Covington and receive a free library card, any Wednesday, 6:00 to 8:00 pm or for an appointment just email:

Ancient & Accepted Scottish Rite - Orient of Kentucky

Valley of Madisonville

Greetings from West Kentucky Scottish Rite Consistory.

I would like to tell you a little about Scottish Rite philanthropy "Childhood Language Development". West Kentucky Scottish Rite is very proud to be a part of helping today's children become more productive by teaching them to better understand and speak the spoken word. "Today's children tomorrow's leaders."

West Kentucky Scottish Rite Consistory is the only Temple in Kentucky that has its Childhood Language Disorder Clinic located inside its Temple at 667 Park Avenue, Madisonville, Kentucky 42431.

The Scottish Rite Foundation Childhood Language Disorder Clinic in Madisonville, Kentucky was established in 1991. Preschooler's age 2-5 years of age who are diagnosed as having a treatable language disorder are treated at no cost to their families. The program is staffed and administered by Daphne Parker, Speech Pathologist. Five to six slots are kept full. Each child is given a one on one 45 minute session each week. The cost of treatment for one child annually is $2,340.00. We treat children who would otherwise go untreated due to the high cost of therapy. It is estimated that hundreds of children could benefit from therapy each year, so the need of many of these children are not met. For more information about please call (270) 821-5260.

The Scottish Rite Language program is national in scope, With 170 centers in operation across the country. Each clinic is supported by their regional Scottish Rite Masons. Each center has the responsibility and major task of raising funds each year to support their own clinic. Donations and or grants have been received from the York Foundation and The Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels, who have provided much needed funding for equipment and teaching supplies used in the language center At least 90% of all donations are used for speech pathologist's fees. All Donations are greatly appreciated. There are four centers in Kentucky alone, Madisonville, Louisville, Covington, and Lexington. Won't you enjoy the spirit of giving; make your tax deductable donation today.

"Our Brother"

God knew he was getting tired.
As he laid his working tools down,
For a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around him,
And whispered, "Come unto Me."
With tearful eyes we watched him suffer,
As he worked from day to day.
Although we loved him dearly,
We could not make him stay.
A Golden Heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the Best.
