Wilson K. Wilder – Grand Master

WILSON K. WILDER
Grand Master

Good Afternoon! It means so much to me that you have taken time out of your schedules to be here. Thank you. When I was Grand Pursuivant, I was told by then Grand Senior Warden, Brother Chris Stout, PGM, to always establish protocol before addressing the Grand Lodge, and it always begins with the Most Worshipful Grand Master. It just does not seem possible... I guess it takes a while for it to sink in. So Right Worshipful Grand Lodge Officers, Most Worshipful Past Grand Masters, Worshipful Appointed Officers, Worshipful District Deputies, Worshipful Grand Lodge Committee Men, Brothers all, Ladies and Guests, what a humbling experience. Only the Supreme Architect of the Universe could humble a man more than this honor that has been bestowed upon me with this beautiful ceremony herein.

I was a little older than some when I started my Masonic journey. Like most people, I knew what Masonry was but I was too focused on my family and vocation to pay much attention to it. Back then it was a bunch of old men meeting in a musty building that had oyster stew in December and fried oysters in June. It wasn't until my mother passed away and we had to clean out her house that I first considered joining the Fraternity. Mom was a proud member of the Eastern Star and on the first Thursday of each month you could find her at the Paris Marie Chapter in Paris where she was a charter member. But when we cleaned out her house, I found volumes of Masonic books, Masonic jewelry, and other Masonic paraphernalia. It was then that I decided someone in the family should continue this tradition. I knew my mother's family had all been Masons and if you walk through the Grinnell plot in the Paris cemetery you will notice Masonic emblems on the grave markers. So I asked my father in law Brother J. T. Brannock, who we lost in July at age 85, how to become a Mason. The next thing I knew I was signing a petition. I joined Amity Lodge in Millersburg because J. T. was a member there and I assumed my father had been a member there as well, so I thought it would be a good fit for me. After all the trials and tribulations that are a part of taking the Degrees and returning Proficiencies, I became a member. I attended meetings, got elected to Offices, and enjoyed the food and fellowship. Somewhere along the way I realized Masonry was the missing piece of the puzzle in my life. What I wasn't getting from church and other organizations I found in Masonry. I embraced it and have tried ever since to live my life by the teachings of the Fraternity to improve myself and become a better man.

As I stand here before you I realize how many people I owe a great debt of gratitude to for helping me reach this summit. First I would like to thank the Craft of Kentucky for having the confidence in me to elect me to the Brother Sanders served the Grand Lodge of Kentucky as District Deputy Grand Master, District 15 in 2012-2013, and Grand Marshal in 2013-2014.

He is a member of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, Valley of Louisville; Bullitt Chapter No. 44, Royal Arch Masons; Bullitt Council No. 114, Royal and Select Masters; Louisville DeMolay Commandery

No 1; Knights Templar; Kosair Shrine Temple; Elizabethtown Chapter No. 174, Order of the Eastern Star; Central Kentucky Past Masters Society; Southern Kentucky Past Masters Society; and Senior DeMolay from Cherokee Chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Congratulations Brother Sanders upon being elected as Grand Junior Warden. May this year be a pleasure to you and an honor to the Craft.

Donald H. Yankey, PGM Elected Grand Secretary

Brother Donald H. Yankey, PM, McNeil No. 596 and Aurora No. 633, was Elected and installed as Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky on Tuesday, October 14, 2014 at the 215th Annual Communication in Louisville, Kentucky.

Brother Yankey served the Grand Lodge of Kentucky as Grand Master in 2010-2011.

Brother Yankey is a member of the Central and South Central Kentucky Society of Past Masters; Royal Arch Masons, Bullitt 44, Bullitt Council No. 114;

Jefferson Commandery; Scottish Rite, Valley of Louisville KCCH; Kosair Shrine Temple; and Star of Hope Chapter 183 O.E.S.

Congratulations Brother Yankey on being elected as Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

exalted position. Thank you Most Worshipful Past Grand Masters for conducting the installation ceremony of the Grand Lodge Officers together with the District Deputy Grand Masters. To the Grand Lodge Officers I have had the honor of serving with, Terry Bowman, PGM; Chris Stout, PGM; Rick T. Nation, PGM; Joe Conway, PGM; Keith Drier, PGM; and Tom Larimore, Grand Treasurer Emeritus, thank you for your dedication to the Craft of Kentucky and raising the bar a little higher for the rest of us. Also, Cloyd Bumgardner and Todd Jones it has been a pleasure working with you two and I know this year will be no different. My Brothers of Amity Lodge No. 40, I am so grateful for the help and support you have given me over the past few years. The other day I was in a Lodge and a man said "Can you believe our next Grand Master is from little Amity Lodge in Millersburg"? With all the great Brothers in that Lodge I'm surprised I'm the first.

There is a special bond between a man and his son when they can call each other Brother in this great Fraternity. And Brother Will G, I am extremely proud of you for what you have accomplished in your short life and happy to call you Brother. And I saved the best for last, to my beautiful wife Sally, time is too short to credit you for each and everything you do for me, so I'm just going to say thank you and I love you.

Sally and I have decided to do a charitable program for Sally's

Garden at the Masonic Homes. We wanted to do something specific and we chose to raise funds to buy new furniture for the outside area so the residents will have a nice place to sit and enjoy the weather. We are working with the Homes to develop some unique fundraising programs to accomplish this.

I also decided to keep some of the Grand Lodge programs that have been successful and well received over the past few years so I decided to keep the Archives Program, Masons Helping Masons, Masonry Matters, and the Veterans Programs. There are a couple of new things I plan on trying this year: first I plan to turn the District Meetings back to the District Deputies and call them the "State of the District Meeting." Each Lodge will have a representative or delegate to give the state of his Lodge at the District Meeting. I have a fun program to promote visitation called the Grand Master's Traveling Gavel which I hope makes it to every Lodge across this great Commonwealth. And finally, the most exciting program is the Education Conferences which will be video conferenced all across the state. To my knowledge this has not been attempted by any Grand Jurisdiction in the United States. We must embrace technology and this is just one way we can push further into the 21st Century. Several Brothers have worked long and hard to make this dream become a reality and I believe it will have a tremendous impact on our Fraternity as well as a huge cost saving.

In closing, let me say I have touched on many topics without going into a lot of detail because if I did we would be here all night. I am looking forward to this year, and with this great team I know we will be able to accomplish anything we set out to do. Finally, it is my hope and prayer that when this year is over, I will leave this Grand Lodge a little better than it is today.

Let your Masonic light shine. Let the world know who we are and what we stand for!

God Bless each one here, God bless the United States of America and her military forces.

Joseph R. Conway, PGM Grand Secretary Emeritus

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

Looking back in Grand style

to raise funds to meet the needs of the residents and children we serve.

Brother Rick Nation's goal during his tenure as Kentucky's 2013-14 Grand Master focused on Continuing Our Obligation. Master Masons promised at the altar to care for our Brothers, their widows and orphans. It's not something we recite only at lodge and then forget about; we must live it each and every day. Brother Rick has lifted up the Homes at every opportunity and we appreciate his passion and leadership.

First Lady Karen Nation has carried the flag of Masonic Home of Shelbyville, where her mother lived for more than two years before her passing. Karen's Our Roots Run Deep theme emphasized the long history of our Shelbyville

Home and Masonry, focusing on the Giving Tree donor program on the Shelbyville campus.

To foster support for both causes, the Grand Master and First Lady attended many events, wrote scores of thank-you notes, personally asked individuals and corporations for support, and held up the Homes—and the importance of investing in our programs and people—at every opportunity.

As we move into a new year of service, we sincerely thank Brother Rick and First Lady Karen for their dedication to the mission, residents and children that are the Masonic Homes of Kentucky. We wish the Nations the very best in the days ahead.

VP/Planned Giving & Fraternal Relations

Masonic Homes continues to be honored by the generous support of our Grand Masters and First Ladies. Each year, we look forward to developing programs and events

Making life all that it can be

Grand Master Wilson Wilder and his wife, Sally, cherish the memories they've made together. These memories and the mission of Masonic Homes of Kentucky inspired them to improve the quality of life for Sally's Garden residents.

Sally's Garden, located at Masonic Home of Louisville, provides a stimulating, safe and comfortable environment that helps extend the independence and cognitive health of individuals with Alzheimer's and dementia for as long as possible. In an intimate home-like setting, Sally's Garden offers enriching lifestyle programs where daily routines combine with physical and cognitive activities based on each individual's needs and desires.

The Wilders and Sally's Garden staff have developed two additional opportunities for expanding stimulating programs and environments for their residents:

- Your contribution may provide comfortable patio furniture and accessories for an enclosed, secure outdoor patio space estimated at $20,000. Being outdoors increases socialization and environmental stimulation, while improving overall health.
- Videos on computers in the entertainment resource center provide auditory and visual stimulation and enjoyment. Older films with simple plots, thought-provoking documentaries and visually stunning nature can be displayed with your contribution to a project estimated at $5,000.

Every gift is acknowledged with a packet of butterfly bush seeds to provide a long-lasting evidence of your commitment to the Wilder's program and Sally's Garden residents.
