Cloyd J. Bumgardner – Grand Master

CLOYD J. BUMGARDNER
Grand Master 2015-2016

Most Worshipful Past Grand Masters, Grand Line Elected and Appointed Officers, Representatives of Affiliated and Appendant Bodies, District Deputies, Committeemen, Brothers, ladies, friends, guests and all. I welcome you to this installation ceremony of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. I appreciate you for coming today and thank you for placing your trust in me. I will work very hard to make decisions affecting the craft to the best of my skill and ability.

Thank you Past Grand Master Joe Conway for performing this installation at my request. I plan to seek your, other Past Grand Masters, the Grand Line Officers, and other knowledgeable individuals advice as I fulfill my duties as Grand Master of Masons in Kentucky. To our guests, what you are witnessing today is the peaceful transition of power from one administration of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky to the next. I thank Past Grand Master Wilson K. Wilder for the job he has just completed and hope to do as well myself. As our outgoing Grand Master lays down the gavel, I will pick it up. After the allotted time, I will then lay down the gavel and the new and incoming Grand Master will pick up his. This is the way the system is designed and it is a system of governance which, in the modern world, was initiated by the "Father of Our Country," Brother George Washington, as the first President of the United States. Our fraternity has deep historical roots. The Grand Lodge of Kentucky traces its ancestry back into the 1700s by virtue of having been chartered by the Grand Lodge of Virginia over 200 years ago. The Grand Lodge of Virginia in turn, was chartered by the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts and the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts was chartered by the Grand Lodge of England. We are very close in historical terms to the beginning of Free Masonry as we know it today and this is a major part of our special relationship with England.

When surveying the broad scope of history, it is easy to see that we as Americans are a privileged people due to our system of self-governance. This is a rare occurrence historically including, to some degree, the peoples of ancient Greece and the Republic of Rome. These instances, along with the "American Experiment" are thousands of years apart. Free Masons know that foundation of our country is based upon Masonic principles, and that many of our Founding Fathers were Masons. Free Masonry is a pillar of Western Civilization by virtue of its teachings and one which we must pass onto the next generation.

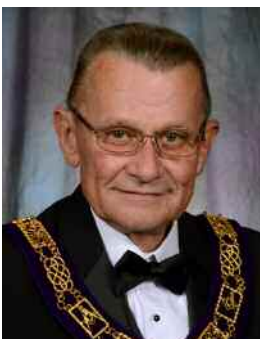

I ask you, what is it that draws men to knock on our Lodge doors? I believe the reasons can be distilled down to one very simple idea. They are seeking the knowledge, acceptance, and light that they are not finding elsewhere. We know Free Masonry offers no plan of salvation, and is therefore not a religion, but it is most certainly founded upon religion. I ask you, where can men meet on the level in a reasonable manner with other men who are sworn to be civil regardless of religious or political belief. Nowhere that I know of, except in a Masonic Lodge.

I promised all you Proud Kentucky Freemasons that during my tenure as Grand Master we would make every attempt to look

A Shared Heritage by Howard Coop

On Thursday, November 26, 2015, we will observe, once again, Thanksgiving Day, a National Holiday that recognizes a rich heritage that is 394 years old.

That heritage dates back to 1621 when 53 sturdy Pilgrims, after a dreadful winter in which 48 of the original 101 died, approached the first harvest in the new world. One observer, Edward Winslow, wrote: "Our governor

"our national heritage and our Masonic heritage is a shared heritage"

(William Bradford) sent four men on fowling, that so we might after a special manner rejoice together after we had gathered the first fruits of our labor." When those four men returned, they had "killed five deer" and "as much fowl, as with a little help beside, served the company ..." the 53 Pilgrims, who had survived that severe winter, and about 90 friendly Indians "for three days feasted and entertained."

That event at Plymouth had a lasting effect upon American culture. Every year on the fourth Thursday in November, we pause, remember that event, recognize our blessings, and give thanks to the One who bestows the blessings.

Two connections with this event are important, and they have special significance for all Masons.

Richard Treat Paine, a man from Massachusetts who signed the Declaration of Independence, is known to have attended the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, so his Masonic background has been firmly established. The ancestry of his mother, Eunice Treat Paine, has been traced "back to the Mayflower." Therefore, it is an established fact that his ancestors were part of the original Thanksgiving event at Plymouth in 1621.

Then, on October 3, 1789, George Washington, first president of the United States and a member of Alexandria Lodge No. 22 in Alexandria, Virginia, recognized the importance of this heritage and issued an official proclamation that called for "A day of public Thanksgiving and Prayer, to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many and signal favor of Almighty God ..."

"Connecting the dots" is important. When the dots are connected, sometimes little dots and sometimes big dots, it becomes apparent that our national heritage and our Masonic heritage is a shared heritage. That's something for which we as Masons on this special day can be thankful.

A gift to last a lifetime... and then some

By BRUCE LOTT

Money isn't everything, but it can make the good things better. If you want to increase your cash flow, consider a gift annuity for one or two lives. You'll help our Masonic Homes residents and receive a payment rate as high as 9%, depending on your age, by turning an asset with little or no income into something more. For example, if you own Certificates of Deposit, you know they currently pay next to nothing. If you have one maturing soon, call us before you renew. You'll have extra cash, receive an income tax deduction and save future taxes. Email Bruce Lott at giving@mhky.com or call 1.866.764.6631.

On September 12, 2015, Cub Run Lodge No. 10 presented Gold Dues Cards and 50-Year Service Pins to James Emery Cave and Wilford I. Cave, members of Valley Lodge No. 511 in Louisville, have 59 and 58 years respectively in Masonry. They joined Cub Run Masonic Lodge on November 13, 1965. They were the last of six Cave brothers to reach their 50-year milestone in the Masonic Lodge. The brothers are the children of Ottis and Audrey Cave of the Cherry Springs Community. All are graduates of Cub Run High School. Combined the Cave brothers, all of whom are still living, have been members of Masonry for 325 years. The oldest, Ottis Cave Jr, a member of Lincoln Lodge

No. 60 in Stanford, Kentucky, has been a Mason for 64 years. Ancil Flavious Cave and Wilford I. Cave, members of Valley Lodge No. 511 in Louisville, have 59 and 58 years respectively in Masonry. The youngest, Wendell C. Cave, also a member of Cub Run Lodge No. 910, has been a Mason for 54 years. These six Cave brothers are proud of their service to the Masonic Fraternity and of their Hart County, Kentucky heritage. Pictured, left to right: Brothers James Emery Cave; Gordon Wayne Cave; and Wendell Cave. The other three brothers were unable to attend.

to the future for our great Fraternity. Our program this year is outlined by the activities detailed in the Grand Masters Excellency Award Program. Most of these ideas were generated from surveys completed by Lodges and many are focused on the future of Free Masonry. Accordingly, I am asking you to encourage our members to try new things and show the community that they stand for the principles of Brotherly love, truth and relief. These are principles which many in society are looking for, but not finding, in other organizations. I am also asking you to encourage our Brothers to look to the future for themselves, their Lodges and for society. If we as Proud Kentucky Freemasons do not encourage each other and our broader society to be better tomorrow than they are today, then who will? As our Junior Past Grand Master of Kentucky has previously said, once upon a time almost every community had a little red school house, a little white church and a little blue Lodge. The world has changed and so to must we to remain relevant. I have complete confidence in you.

I am very aware of the lesson of the turtle seen sitting atop a fence post by the two young farm boys. The first farm boy asked the second one, "I wonder how that turtle got on top of the fence post?" The second one answered, "I don't know, but he didn't do it by himself." Like the turtle, I did not get to this position by myself, but had much help from my family, friends, and brothers. I am publically thanking my family and all of you, the brothers and individuals who have allowed me to sit in this chair for the ensuing year.

Brothers, as we advance this Fraternity of Free Masons passed down to us from antiquity we need to always be civil to one another, preserve the best of our past and promote a bright and glorious future. Proud Kentucky Free Masons shall provide an example of civility for society to follow. In my humble opinion, the world needs what Free Masonry has to offer more today than ever before.

Brothers, I love you and I'm from you!
