Todd Jones – Grand Master

TODD JONES

Grand Master 2016-2017

Right Worshipful Elected Grand Lodge Officers, Past Grand Masters, Right Reverend Grand Chaplain, Appointed Grand Lodge Officers, District Deputy Grand Masters, Committeemen, Distinguished Guests from other Appendant Bodies, Masters, Wardens, Brothers, Family, Ladies, Friends and all, Welcome! Thank you from Laura and me, for being here with us today.

I would like to start by thanking one person for all the hard work, long hours, miles traveled, staying up late, keeping me going, walking every step with me by my side. Sometimes behind me only too push me or to kick me when at times I needed it. Anyone that says that this isn't a team effort well... Without my wife Laura, I could not stand here today as YOUR Grand Master and importantly YOUR BROTHER.

I want to thank all my family for being here today, it hasn't been easy for them. I have missed a lot of things but, I want them to know that I have always been with them in thought. I would also like to thank the Brothers from my two Lodges Fleming No. 112 and Favorite No. 581 for their support and believing in me. And to all my Brothers across this great State from East to West, thank you all.

Brothers this year will be ONLY as good as we make it TOGETHER. This is truly a team effort with all of us pulling together. We will make a positive difference in Masonry in Kentucky.

There are four things we are going to do this year. They are the four F's: Faith, Family, Fraternity and Fun.

Faith: We all have and need faith more now than ever as our world's morals are crumbling.

Family: Without our family we have nothing.

Fraternity: Family and Fraternity go hand in hand. They both are the same if it's our blood family or our fraternal family, we would do what we can for each other.

Fun: If we can't enjoy or have fun in what we are doing then we need to make the changes in what we are doing. Life is too short not to enjoy it.

Brothers, at the end of my term as YOUR Grand Master I hope to measure my year of success by one thing. That is when I'm done and Tim is standing here talking to you as the newly installed Grand Master, that I have EARNED your respect to still be called Brother Todd and not Past Grand Master. The highest honor to me is that. Remember if you never leave the CRAFT you do not have to return. I love each and every one of you. MAY GOD BLESS all of us this year. I am looking forward to all of us surviving it.

*Fraternity Thine,
TODD JONES, Grand Master
Grand Lodge Of Kentucky*

WHAT IS A MASON?

by Larry York, DEMOSS #220

A Mason is a man who has decided he likes to feel good about himself and others. He cares about the future as well as the past. He does what he can both alone and with others to make sure the future is good for everyone. Recently I found that to be true. I belong to a small Lodge in District #19, DeMoss Lodge No. 220. Our Lodge was in need of some repairs, most importantly a new roof. To help offset the cost, we purchased a shotgun to be raffled. Tickets were printed up for a dollar donation.

We did get our roof replaced and the shotgun raffle was a success because we made enough on the raffle to replace our gutters and down spouts, also. I would like to take this time to thank everyone that participated in the raffle. I would like to especially thank the man who sets the example of a true Mason. His name is District Deputy Dan Kemble of District #18. He was the winner of the raffle. Upon his name being drawn as the winner, he donated the shotgun back to the Lodge to be raffled again later in the year. Thanks again to everyone that made our raffle a huge success.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE

17th Annual Covington Scottish Rite Foundation's Sporting Clay Classic

The 17th Annual Covington Scottish Rite Foundation's Sporting Clay Classic was held on October 6 at Elk Creek in Owen County. Nineteen teams competed at this world-class course and the weather could not have been better. The Classic is the Foundation's fundraising event for its RiteCare services. This Valley's Foundation operates RiteCare services in Cold Spring, Prestonsburg, and Ashland. Of all the other Orients in the jurisdiction, this Foundation was the first (and remains to be the only) to offer Dyslexia tutoring. The overall mission of this event is to fund the services specific to Scottish Rite (RiteCare) and spread concern and Masonic love for others by supporting area charities that help children: Kicks for Kids, New Chance Foundation, and the Children's Advocacy Center.

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Passionate People. INSPIRING LIVES.

Homes' Ambassadors prepare for new year of service

In September, the Masonic Homes Ambassadors met in Lexington for their annual orientation and training. Serving the Craft for the first time are 11 new Ambassadors, while 19 are continuing their service. The gathering began with a social hour, followed by a dinner with the 2016-17 District Deputy Grand Masters. The evening concluded with comments from Most Worshipful Grand Master Bro. Todd Jones and Homes Mission Advancement staff, Bros. Barry Denton and Bruce Lott. Saturday morning's activities focused on educating Ambassadors about the Homes, its programs, services and plans for the future.

Bro. Andy Hall (Valley Lodge No. 511, Zoneton No. 964 and Masonic Homes of Kentucky No. 967) was introduced as the Homes' first State Ambassador. Brother Hall is the general manager of Craig and Landreth Cars and resides in Louisville although his family is from eastern and western Kentucky. We are honored to have him serve as our new State Ambassador.

Andy Hall was named the Homes' first State Ambassador at the annual Ambassador training in Lexington.

How well do you sleep?

Late comedian and entertainer Danny Thomas, founder of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, TN, once said, "There are two kinds of people in the world: givers and takers. The takers may eat better, but the givers sleep better." So much of what we do in the Mission Advancement Department at Masonic Homes centers around encouraging individuals, lodges, foundations, corporations and others to be givers of their time, talent and treasure to help assure our residents have the highest quality of life possible.

All of us have so much for which we are thankful, and it is important to share part of our bounty with others in a way that is personally meaningful. There are many opportunities to help the Homes carry out its mission. If you would like to talk with us about how you can help, just let us know. Call 502.259.9627, email giving@mhky.com or write us at 3761 Johnson Hall Drive, Masonic Home, KY 40041. You'll sleep better tonight.

Worth a Thousand Words

District 12 District Deputy Grand Master, Bro. Steve Freeman (second from right), presents Sproutlings' Kristen Brewer and Julie Mulligan, and Homes VP of Fraternal Relations, Bro. Bruce Lott, with a $1,000 check for Sproutlings' Resource Closet. Steve personally contacted each lodge requesting their help in funding the purchase of materials for the children served on the Masonic Homes' Louisville Campus.

Four Masonic Homes employees were honored by the state's largest industry association, LeadingAge Kentucky, at its annual conference and awards luncheon. Pictured below from left to right, Kim Sublett received the Community Living Award, Sally Jo Magness received the Nursing Excellence Award, Cindy Childers received the Spiritual Care Award and Anna Gordon received the Community Living Award.
