Grand Master's Message

TODD JONES

Grand Master 2016-2017

My Brothers, the trees are budding the flowers are starting to bloom and the grass is growing yeah! As the crappie are biting and the turkeys are gobbling. Spring is a great time for Masonry to bloom and grow.

The district meetings having been greatly attended this year with large numbers of Brothers and their lady's attending. With great fellowship and Brotherly love throughout. The country hams that are being giving away has raised a great amount of money for our Veterans program. There is a few more District Meetings still left, if you haven't attended one, I hope to see you there soon.

Brothers continue to be the men and Masons we are in our communities, and they will see how great Masonry truly is. Please continue to support our kids in any way you and your Lodges can.

Make your plans now to participate in our Four-Wheeler Rides this year to support Masons Helping Masons Program. Everyone is welcome to join us in these fun events. Saturday, May 13 - Salyersville, Ky., contact: Ryan Arnett 606-367-6221; Saturday, June 10 - Bardwell, Ky., contact: Mike Terry 270-559-2778; Saturday, June 24 - Wildcat Off Road Park in East Bernstadt, Ky., contact: the park directly 606-843-0411. All rides sign up at 12:00 p.m. and ride begins at 1:00 p.m. Don't forget Favorite Lodge No. 581 Annual Wild Life dinner on Saturday, May 6, 2017 dinner at 12:00 p.m. (EST) at the Ewing Fire Station in Ewing, Kentucky.

Always remember Brothers, to have Masons we must always be Masons. May God bless each of you and hope to see you at a Lodge soon.

"Spring is a great time for Masonry to bloom and grow."

The Masonic Library and Museum Announces Summer Hours

The Covington Board of Directors recently announced the The Masonic Library and Museum new hours from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm every Wednesday, and is opened to all Master Masons. The library is used for study, research or just browsing every Wednesday, except holidays, beginning in March.

We are very proud of our small 3,000 book Library as it contains many rare and hard to find Masonic books, along with newer books written by popular authors. If you are interested in a particular subject, or possibly researching some particular Masonic item, just email ahead and we can lay out related books on your particular subject. A free library card will be given to you on your first visit that you can use to check out books of your choice. All you need is your current Lodge dues card.

For security reasons, one should enter the building through the kitchen door, down the ramp in the back of the building. For most of you who do not have a key, it is advisable to email ahead the Wednesday you wish to attend with the approximate arrival time, so that someone will be able to unlock the kitchen door and escort you to the Library.

Other opportunities for Masonic Education are the MLMA Discussion group which hopes to restart this Spring and William O. Ware Lodge of Research which meets on the 5th Wednesday, when occurring. A Scottish Rite study group, for the Master Craftsman Program is also in the plans. All events will be held at the Covington Scottish Rite, 1553 Madison Avenue, Covington.

It is our hope that you will take advantage of this opportunity to learn more about the wonderful Fraternity of Freemasonry of which you are a member, and possibly share with the Brethren of your Lodge what you have learned. More Light in Masonry is what every Master Mason should strive for. For more information email: library.covsr@outlook.com

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Passionate People. INSPIRING LIVES.

Masonic Homes of Kentucky Honored at the Capitol for 150th Anniversary

Leaders from Masonic Homes of Kentucky and longtime Kentucky Masons traveled to Frankfort to take part in a Day at the Capitol with legislators on Thursday, February 23. The special day featured a proclamation from Lt. Gov. Jenean Hampton celebrating Masonic Homes' 150-year legacy as a trusted community caregiver. It was presented to Masonic Homes of Kentucky President and CEO Gary Marsh.

Kentucky leaders honored 150 years of heritage, hope and home during the special celebration that also included a presentation in the Capitol Rotunda from Speaker of the House Jeff Hoover, as well as a luncheon and program at the Governor's Mansion.

"Masonic Homes would not be able to commemorate this occasion if it weren't for the thousands of people who serve or have served our residents, patients, children and guests with passion over the years," said Marsh. "In fact, 'Passionate People Inspiring Lives' is our purpose and guiding values. Masonic Homes has used that passion to fuel our success."

From Whence Came You and Whither Art Thou Bound?

We've all been asked these questions in one form or another. And we've had them answered for us in pretty much the same way. I would impress upon you to answer these questions for yourself with the added Masonic wisdom you have accumulated.

"Where did you come from?" We've all arrived here in this Fraternity from different places. Different economic situations, different childhoods, different educations, different life and work experiences. But, somehow, we've all ended up in basically the same place. All of us are a part of the world's oldest, largest, best Fraternity. Some participate in more or fewer parts of it. Some receive more so called honors than others. But at the core, we are each and every one very similar to one another. No matter our religion, political party, race, or socio-economic standing. No matter if we're blue collar, white collar, retired, redneck, hippie, or some New Age variation I've never heard of. And you know what? This Fraternity would not be what it is without any one of us. We are each, separately and collectively, vital to this organization.

"Why are you here?" Why do you attend? Why do you participate? Why do you gladly accept increased responsibility? Why do you willingly hand over your time, talents, and treasure? Why do you pay your dues for decades and never darken our doors? I can't answer those questions. Each of you must answer them for yourself. But I can tell you that those who do go to Masonic meetings do so out of love. Love not only of the Fraternity, but love of each other and our fellow man. We all assemble before the meeting and have a bite to eat, a cup of coffee. Share a joke or two. Talk about the ballgame the other night. But at some point, we will clothe ourselves and retire to the meeting room. There, assembled around the Volume of Sacred Law, we will discuss the most profound truths of the universe. Life, death, mortality, immortality, virtue, brotherly love, charity, relief, truth, and justice. Sometimes we don't even realize what we are discussing. It comes so effortlessly after all these years. But each one of us influences each other. Knowingly or not. Unfairly or not. We each are an inseparable part of each other. How good and how pleasant is it for Brothers to dwell together in unity! How vitally important is it for us to love one another! How sacred is the Mystic Tie which joins us!

Once again a Brother Mason, having completed the designs written for him on life's trestle board, has passed through the portals of eternity and entered the Grand Lodge of the New Jerusalem and hath received as his reward, the white stone with the new name written thereon; and

WHEREAS, the all-wise and merciful Master of the Universe has called from labor to refreshment our beloved and respected Brother; and

WHEREAS, he having been a true and faithful Brother of our Order; therefore be it

RESOLVED, that Leitchfield Lodge No. 236 F&AM, Charter be draped in testimony of her loss, be draped in mourning for thirty days and that we tender to the family of our deceased Brother our sincere condolence in their deep affliction, and that a copy of these Resolutions be sent to the family.
