As I travel across this great State of ours I have enjoyed great fellowship and hospitality, plus great meals. The one thing that is going on across this State is a tremendous amount of Degree work in every District. Brothers, you are doing the right thing by getting out into our communities and being the men and Masons we are, showing them what true Masons are everyday. Keep up the great work and thank you.

Please don't forget to thank our Veterans for their service and our First Responders. Without them we could not enjoy doing what we love to do, being Masons. Thank you for your continued support this year. Together will we make a difference in our communities. I look forward to seeing you at a Lodge across the State soon!

Always remember to have a Mason Brother we must first be a Mason! May God bless each of you.

Fraternally Thine TODD JONES

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Passionate People. INSPIRING LIVES.

150th Anniversary kicks off with a weekend of events

Masonic Homes of Kentucky kicked off its 150th year with a weekend of events including an Employee Documentary Premiere Breakfast and a Black Tie Gala. Both events featured the premiere of "Little City Beautiful" – a documentary that tells the story of the founding of Masonic Homes and the many children's lives that were touched and transformed through living at the Home, through interviews and historic photos.

On January 13, Masonic Homes employees were invited to a breakfast premiere of "Little City Beautiful" that was held at The Olmsted; about 125 employees attended. Many are longtime employees and while they have not have worked at Masonic Homes the entire 150 years, many have dedicated several years of service.

The weekend continued with a black tie gala on Saturday, January 14 at The Olmsted, gathering together leadership, sponsors, alumni and friends. The Olmsted and Masonic Homes entrance were lit up with blue lights for the festive occasion, and guests spilled into the venue wearing gowns and tuxedos.

The evening featured cocktails, dinner by Masterson's Catering, music by local band Kudmani, professional photographers, selfie sticks for group shots, and more. Guests went home with 150th anniversary branded champagne flutes and picture frames as gifts.

The year-long sesquicentennial celebration of heritage, hope and home will continue throughout 2017.

Little City Beautiful is a documentary that features interviews with pivotal Masonic Homes leadership, alumni, senior living industry leaders and others to show the thoughts for our founding 150 years ago, how we've adapted to current needs and how we are building for the future with that same mission at the heart of it all. The interviews are threaded together by a narrative recorded by well-known Masonic Homes teacher, Laura Johnson.

KET will air Little City Beautiful throughout 2017.

HISTORIC MASONIC MEETING - MILL SPRINGS BATTLEFIELD

Over 100 Freemasons from across the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and several other states, gathered at the Mill Springs Battlefield Historic site located at Nancy, Kentucky (Pulaski County) on September 24, 2016 to hold a Master Mason Degree. Three Fellowcrafts were made Master Masons during this historic District #22 meeting. The Mill Springs Battlefield Site is of great historic value, it was the first battle of the Civil War that the Union won. On January 19, 1862 the Confederates lost over 120 men, many of whom are buried in a mass grave on the battlefield, and the Union lost 39 men, many who are buried in the nearby Mill Springs National Cemetery. This cemetery is one of the first twelve National Cemeteries authorized by Congress. Additionally, Sergeant Brent Woods from Somerset, Kentucky, a "Buffalo Soldier" and has a Congressional Medal of Honor from Somerset, Kentucky, is buried there. He received this recognition for service in the Indian Wars. In addition to the historical significance for our nation, the battle is of great Masonic significance also, both Union General George H. Thomas and Confederate General Felix Zollicoffer (killed in the battle) were Masons as well as were many other officers and enlisted men on both sides.

General George H. Thomas, known as the "Rock of Chickamauga" was in charge of the Union forces and is considered by many historians to have made a significant contribution to the Union winning the war. The town of Fort Thomas, Kentucky and Fort Thomas Masonic Lodge #808 carries his name. Brigadier General Felix Zollicoffer was a prominent newspaperman and United States Congressman from Tennessee who served in several important governmental positions. Although he did not support succession of Tennessee from the Union, he served in the Confederate Army. He was also a member of Cumberland Lodge #8 under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Tennessee. Civil War historians indicate that Zollicoffer was a very capable Officer and his death was a great loss to the Confederacy. History records that the soldier who most probably killed General Zollicoffer was Colonel Speed Frye of the 4th Kentucky Infantry. Frye was a Kentucky Freemason, belonging to Franklin #28 Masonic Lodge in Danville, Kentucky.

The Mill Springs Battlefield Association complex is modern and includes the Mill Springs Battlefield, Confederate Cemetery, Visitor Center and Museum, Gift Shop, Civil War Library, Walking Tours, etc. The Mills Springs National Cemetery is adjacent to the Museum. Call Mill Springs Battlefield Director Monica DeCarlo at 606-636-4045 (or visit http://www.millsprings.net/) for more information

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky extends many thanks to the Mill Springs Battlefield Association Board members for allowing this Masonic Meeting to take place on the grounds. Members include: Dr. Bruce Burkett (President); Jonathan Fox (Vice-President); Kelly Crow (Secretary); Sandra Brans; Sandra Chapman; Rick Drake; Cheryl Greene; Ann Haney; Josh Jones; Carolyn Mounce; and Nelson Weaver.
