Grand Master's Message

TODD JONESGrand Master 2016-2017

Hello Brothers,

WOW! How and where to start my last article. I want to thank each of you for showing Laura and I such great Brotherly love over the past 4 years. You have opened your arms, your hearts, and your homes to us and showed us how Masonry in Kentucky truly is second to none.

You have Blessed me this year with all the hard work going on in our communities to show how great Kentucky Masonry is. Your involvement in your communities and especially our youth is making a huge difference. Quality men are asking to join everywhere across our state.

Brothers, this year my slogan has been "To Have Mason's, We Must Be Mason's," that sounds pretty simple and it is. The easiest time to be a Mason is when we are at Lodge, or at Lodge functions. The hardest part is being that man and Mason is out in our communities everyday. Be that man that inspires someone to want to be just like you. Let them ask you why you do the things you do. Proudly tell them "I'm a Mason." Then let them ask how can I become a Mason?

Please get behind Tim Sanders and the rest of the Grand Lodge Officers, they are and will continue to work hard to make Masonry Great in Kentucky. The support that your Elected Grand Lodge Officers has given me this year has been incredible. I know without a doubt the Craft of Kentucky is in great hands for the next several years to come. I hope I have been able to represent the Craft of Kentucky with dignity and respect that it deserves. At the end of my year I hope that I have earned your respect to call me vour Brother.

As always to have Mason's you must be a Mason. May God Bless each and every one of you.

Fraternally Thine,
TODD JONES

District 24 Picnic – Uninvited Guest

Right Angle Lodge No. 233 in Winchester, Kentucky hosted the District #24 picnic at Natural Bridge State Park on July 22. It was fun for all but there was an uninvited guest. Ioin Masonic Homes as we hold a cornerstone dedication for our two new communities, Grove Point Assisted Living and Meadow Active Lifestyle Community, on our Louisville Campus. The ceremonies will be conducted by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.&A.M. and Prince Hall Grand Lodge F.&A.M. of Kentucky.

Ambassador, Brother Arius Holbrook, retires after 8 years of service

Ten years ago Masonic Homes began an ambassador program across the state to help share Masonic Homes' message with Kentucky's Masonic Lodges. Thirty ambassadors make regular visits to Lodges in their districts, providing information and encouraging the Lodges to support Masonic Homes. Ambassadors are asked to make a two year commitment, but some choose to volunteer longer.

Brother Arius Holbrook is one of our long-time volunteers who served as a district ambassador for eight years. He did take a brief break to serve in another Masonic role, but then returned to finish the eight years. Brother Holbrook is wellknown, respected and an exemplary example of an ambassador. He has done an outstanding job of representing the Masonic Homes and our residents in his district and beyond.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE

Ambassador Message

Are you Blessed? or, You are Blessed!

Ambassador/Chairman

Orient of Kentucky Scottish Rite A.A.S.R.

Which ever way you read this, remember Blessings come in a variety of ways.

How many ways are you Blessed?

Have you ever thought of all the different ways you have been blessed?

How about those wonderful children you are raising or have raised?

How about that family next door that you secretly help during hard times?

Are you not Blessed by having a supportive wife, someone that supports your Masonic endeavors?

How about all those wonderful friends you have? Blessed aren't you?

Most of us are blessed beyond our wildest dreams, we just don't stop and think about it. We just take it for granted. Did you ever doubt you could become a Mason? Were you blessed when you were accepted? Sure you were, you didn't think about it at the time, but you were blessed, because you were accepted by men that didn't really know you, you were given a chance to prove yourself.

How about the many Masons you have encountered in your Masonic travels? I think it is a pure and simple blessing that I have had the chance to be counted among the world's finest Fraternity and been able to travel and meet such fine and wonderful men as you.

How about that Scottish Rite group? Aren't they a wonderful extension of our Brotherhood? Leaders such as Albert Pike, John Cowles, Ronald A. Seale, and John Moyers, just to name a few. Then, there are Brothers like you, the guys in the trenches who are now doing the work and being leaders in your Valleys, your Scottish Rite Clubs, your Lodges and most of all your communities. You may work behind the scenes and go unannounced, but you can't hide... We know you are there and your work is superb, your dedication goes unmatched. And once again you are Blessed in what you do... and for the rest of us, we are blessed because of you and your work.

We are heading into that time of year when we need to count our Blessings, be thankful that God has provided us with the necessities of life. Compassion for your fellow man will endure through our lifetime.

Thank you for being a Mason, a man among men and especially a Scottish Rite Mason. Never forget our philanthropy, "RITE CARE KIDS" is what we are about!

God Bless you for being a part of My Masonic Life! God Bless America!
