My Brothers All,

As you read this message we will be in the month of July which is the birth month of our great republic. July 4, 1776 is a date which is dear to Americans who treasure the heritage of self government left to us by our Masonic forefathers. Each year my family celebrated by traveling to West Liberty, in Morgan County. We went to the big city for the fireworks display, square dancing and to eat cheeseburgers and drink orange Nehi at a local restaurant. The trip was a wonderful experience for a Wolfe County plowboy like myself. There was also farm work to be done in July. Mom always looked for the early July rains that would make the tobacco (cash crop) and garden (food for the family) grow. By this time the tobacco I cultivated atop a 140 Farmall was too big to run over any more, and the toughest weeds required a hoe. To this day, one of my favorite pastimes is hoeing in the garden. This skill was perfected from hours of chopping weeds out of the tobacco patch. Also, there wasn't much money floating around during this time, but what there was had real buying power. I remember setting tobacco at the rate of 50 cents per hour. After 10 hours of work I could buy more candy bars and soda pop than I knew what to do with (6 candy bars and 6 soda pop for fifty cents)! However, my parents taught me to save money and not be frivolous since it was so hard to get. Another lesson that I learned on the farm was that you worked till dark or until the job was done and you always pay day laborers at the end of each day.

As an older man I now understand that respect for our Nation, family, community; paying your debts and an appreciation of the gift of labor are all Masonic virtues. Even though I learned them as a child, the lessons were taught by the most important men in my life who were also Masons. They were my father, grandfather and uncle. I ask you to exemplify these same virtues so that your family and friends can see them as well.

To close this article, your Grand Lodge Officers and I are personally inviting you to join us and brother Masons from across the Commonwealth of Kentucky at the open house and dedication of the new Grand Lodge Office Building. It is located at 11620 Commonwealth Drive Louisville, Kentucky 40299. The open house is on Saturday, July 13, 2019 and Sunday, July 14, 2019 from 9:00 am - 5:00 pm - both days. The building dedication will be on Sunday, July 14, 2019 at 2:00 pm. We look forward to seeing you there for good fun and most importantly, good fellowship.

Do good unto all,

Fraternally Thine,

GARY C. ROSE

At one cemetery was the grave of Brother William A. Dotson, M.D., a charter member of our lodge, (the large obelisk at left). Several stones were turned over due to a large tree falling on them. Our Brothers reset those stones, including resurrecting the one we are surrounding in the photo, which is the grave of Brother James L. Dotson, father of Dr. Dotson. Brother James L. Dotson was a member of Thomas C. Cecil Lodge No. 375 at Pikeville and died before the institution of Thomas DeVenny Lodge No. 928.

RIGHT ANGLE LODGE #233

"JOURNEY OF A TRAVELLING MAN"

by Jon S. Dawson, PM (239)

Right Angle Lodge No, 233 in Winchester Kentucky has a real "Traveling Man". Brother Steve Talbott, PM started his goal to visit at least one lodge in every county in the Commonwealth in 2015. When asked about his journey he replied;

"I wanted to visit all 14 lodges in District 24. Belonging to Right Angle #233 in Winchester, I needed 13 more lodges to visit. So I started with Bath Lodge #55 on August 4, 2015. I liked visiting and traveling to different lodges, so I also started mixing in lodges from outside of our District."

"In 2016, I went out west to visit friends in Arizona and California. I thought it would be fun to stop in every state along the way and visit a lodge that was meeting that particular night. So I made stops in Tennessee, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, went up into Nevada, back to California, and through Texas on the way home. Then on other trips I have visited two more lodges in Tennessee and three more in Florida." After returning from these travels Bro. Steve started visiting lodges in and out of District 24. Traveling further and further to visit additional lodges and after reviewing his masonic passport he realized he had visited enough lodges in several counties to complete different districts.

Steve states, "I thought it would be impossible to visit a lodge in all 30 districts, but I became obsessed with trying." On Sept. 5, 2017, he completed his goal of visiting at least one lodge in all 30 districts, when he visited Joppa Lodge #167 in Eddyville. That was a special day because that also completed the last entry in his passport and signified that he had been in 90 different lodges. "I only get one entry and stamp from a lodge. If I return to that lodge I don't get a stamp. That way, every entry in my passport is from a different lodge."

Steve states, "I thought it would be impossible to visit a lodge in all 30 districts, but I became obsessed with trying." On Sept. 5, 2017, he completed his goal of visiting at least one lodge in all 30 districts, when he visited Joppa Lodge #167 in Eddyville. That was a special day because that also completed the last entry in his passport and signified that he had been in 90 different lodges. "I only get one entry and stamp from a lodge. If I return to that lodge I don't get a stamp. That way, every entry in my passport is from a different lodge."

Steve then went back through his passport and wrote the name of the county under the lodge entry. He also wrote down the number corresponding to how many different counties in which he had visited a lodge. His visit to Joppa Lodge #167 in Lyon County marked the 59th County in which he had visited a lodge, not counting out-of-state lodges.

So with his passport full and having visited a lodge in all 30 districts, and in almost HALF the 120 counties in Kentucky, he considered the possibility of visiting a lodge in ALL 120 counties!

So his journey continued. He got another passport, taped it to his first one, and hit the road again with a single purpose in mind, sit in lodge in all 120 counties. Nothing was going to stop him now, but he needed a plan. "I went to the Grand Lodge website and printed the map of Kentucky with the counties and districts outlined on it. I used a highlighter to mark the counties I had already visited a lodge to give me an idea of a route to take. I wanted to start in western Kentucky and get the furthest counties first and work my way back, so the trips would get shorter when I went out each time."

He continued, "I went back to the Grand Lodge website and looked at the days EACH lodge met and what county it was in. Then I made a chart to plan what day I could visit a particular county. On top of that, I had other obligations here in Winchester. I have meetings of my own lodge, which I have never missed, plus Lexington York Rite, Winchester York Rite, Bingo nights we work for our lodge fund-raiser, and Scottish Rite. So some nights I could not travel because I don't want to miss these other meetings. Then when I could go for a couple of days on the road I tried to find a lodge that would meet on a Monday, then spend the night and go to another on Tuesday night. They might not be in adjoining counties, but I would mark it off my map of counties and districts. I would sometimes run into the same people I had been in lodge with the night before. Sometimes lodges I wanted to visit would meet on the same night, so that meant another drive from central Kentucky to western Kentucky. Sometimes a lodge in one county would meet on a Monday night and a lodge in an adjoining county would meet on a Tuesday night of the FOLLOWING week so that was also another 4-hour trip each way. But I kept plugging away."

Bro. Steve met Tim Berry, the Secretary of Halfway Lodge #852, at Austin Lodge #847 when he drove down to join the Southern Past Masters Society. Steve recalls "He even presented me with a ham for traveling the furthest." Then, just by coincidence, they sat together in six different lodges. Steve commented, "Tim even vouched for me in one of them. I thought it would be nice to save his lodge for the last one in my journey." Bro. Tim's lodge, Halfway Lodge #852, would be the ultimate lodge visit in the 120th county.

So far Brother Steve Talbott has been in 154 DIFFERENT LODGES, not counting the repeat visits. "Some lodges around here I have been to five or six times." Congratulations Brother Talbott, you are truly a "Traveling Man".

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Valley of Louisville

Greetings Brothers,

September will mark the completion of the second year for Randolph Starks as the Secretary/Recorder and myself as the Personal Representative in the Valley of Louisville. During that time, there have been some changes with the usual programs.

Within Freemasonry change can be a difficult thing to accept. We get comfortable with having the same routine, knowing what to expect, and having no surprises. We like our "traditions", and we like them to be left alone. Everyone knows about the Past Masters' corner that seems to exist in every lodge. It is the corner of the lodge from which we often hear the phrase "Well in my day we..." You can fill in the blank.

The Valley of Louisville retains some of its traditions such as the Widow's night, Feast of Tishri, Flag Day, George Washington night, greeting everyone at the door, and the same format for meetings. These are the things that make the Valley comfortable to members. I would like to think we have also had a few changes in the past couple of years. The Memorial Service held by the Chapter of Rose Croix instead of a Maundy Thursday service of extinguishing and relighting the lights, having refreshments at every meal and not just certain meetings, and the complete renovation of a room.

Even more out of the norm will be our October 26 Masquerade Ball fundraiser. It is the first of its kind to be held at the Valley. This is a fundraiser for our Scottish Rite Foundation which supports the child language disorders philanthropy. It is also, not just for members. We are asking you to invite people outside of the fraternity to attend and donate to this worthwhile cause. You can contact the office to get additional information. We are asking each member of the Valley to help make this a successful event by either attending, inviting friends to attend, or if not able to attend to donate.

Brothers, I say this at every meeting of the Valley, but I want you to know that it is heartfelt. Thank you for the support that you show to the Valley. Your attendance, participation, promoting of Scottish Rite, and most of all friendship are greatly appreciated. While the leaders of the Valley can plan traditional and new events we must have your support to make it successful. In my view, it has been a successful two years. However, we can always find ways of improving.

If you have not been to the Valley of Louisville in a while or even in several years you are still heartily invited to attend any of our meetings and events. We look forward to seeing you again.

Fraternally,

David L. White, 33°, Personal Representative, Valley of Louisville

KNIGHTS OF ST. ANDREW, VALLEY OF LOUISVILLE

The Knights of St. Andrew, Valley of Louisville was resurrected and reformed in December of 2010 under the leadership of Knight Commander Jeff Meade as a Service Unit to the Valley. Membership was open to all Scottish Rite Masons under the following conditions; Active Voting Members must be 32° Masons. Those masons recognized with Honours; K.C.C.H. or 33° may hold membership, but not as a voting member. Within six months the membership had grown to over twenty 32° members.

During that first year the Knights, worked on the Brother to Brother program, organized the Master Craftsman Class, presented the 29°, assumed the role of the army in the 32°, held two Knighting Ceremonies and held their first dinner honoring the Battle of Bannockburn.

Over the years the Knights of St. Andrew have served the Valley of Louisville as greeters, guides, and mentors to our new Brothers. They assist in any way they can, including fund-raising for the Scottish Rite Foundation.

That legacy of service continued in 2014 as the KSA put together a team to beautify the courtyard of the OES Home in downtown Louisville. This annual event was held, for it's sixth year, on May 25, 2019 under the leadership of Knight Commander Tom Harper. As in the past few years we spread fifty bags of mulch, trimmed, raked and cleaned up the grounds. (see photo on right)

Any Scottish Rite Mason is invited to join the KSA. Our meetings are held at 5:30 PM prior to the 6:30 PM fellowship hour, preceding the Stated Scottish Rite Meeting at 7:30 PM held on the 2nd & 4th Thursday each month, except August when the Valley is dark.

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

"I Didn't Know That....."

William Murray, the first Grand Master of Masons of Kentucky, was Master of Hiram Lodge #57, when he attended a convention of delegates from five Kentucky Lodges, held in Lexington, September 8, 1800. Chairman John Hawkins appointed Murray with four others to "draft a respectful address to the Grand Lodge of Virginia, giving reasons that have induced these lodges to separate from its jurisdiction". This beautiful letter, filled with dignity and respect, and likewise the reply from the Virginia Grand Lodge, should be a 'must read' for every Masonic Secretary on how to conduct business between lodges, the Grand Lodge and other masonic organizations.

Other organizational meetings took place, but it was on October 16th, 1800 the Grand Lodge of Kentucky was opened with the oldest Past Master, Worshipful James Morrison presiding and Brother Murray serving as Sr. Warden pro-tem. The election was conducted using the 'Ahiman Rezon' of Virginia and resulting in William Murray of Hiram Lodge being elected Grand Master. This, of course speaks very highly of Brother Murray, to be chosen the 'first' Grand Master of Kentucky Freemasons. Afterwards, Murray again served his home lodge as Master in 1802.

Much should be said of the co-operation and goodwill that permeated this convention. It is undeniable that Lexington Lodge, the largest of the five lodges, and who had done so much to see this event come to fruition, even hosting the event; could well have dominated the entire affair and elected one of their own as Grand Master. Instead Lexington Lodge chose to practice true brotherhood and avoid anything that may appear self-serving. This is not to say that Lexington Lodge members were not active, if not the most active members in the new Grand Lodge for years to come

Recognized as a prominent attorney, Murray was an early settler to Frankfort. In 1791, he was appointed U. S. District Attorney, and also served as State Attorney General until 1795. Politically, Murray was a Federalist, and was a singular vote against the 1798 Kentucky Resolutions that would years later be used as a tool to justify the secession of the southern states from the union. It is recorded in the Statute Law of Kentucky, February 1797 Session, Murray was named one of four trustees of the land west of the Kentucky River and one mile around the public square of Frankfort; to see that this land became part of that city in the near future. He also donated land for Kentucky's first Masonic Hall. On August 8, 1805, Brother Murray died and the Grand Lodge was ordered to wear black crepe arm band for one month.

With so little known of Brother Murray's earlier days, speculation has evolved that he was involved in the Spanish Conspiracy with General James Wilkinson, supporting the succession of Kentucky to Spain. In fact, historian Lewis Collins in his 1848 "Historical Sketches of Kentucky" speaks of a clandestine meeting of the conspirators in early December, 1795, at New Madrid, where Wilkinson's spokesman and Spanish secret operative, Thomas Powers, was to meet Benjamin Sebastion, on behalf of several distinguished Kentuckians, including "William Murray, a prominent Kentucky attorney". This, if true, would be our William Murray. However, in Jo Ann Trogdan's book, "The Unknown Travels and Dubious Pursuits of William Clark" she quotes Sebastion, when asked about the other conspirators, particularly Judge Inez, Attorney George Nicholas, and a merchant named William Murray; Sebastion replied either "family concerns" or "indisposition" kept Innes from coming, a fear of discovery kept Nicholas from coming, and Murray's "habitual state of inebriation" kept him away. This characterization, a merchant and habitual drunk, does not seem to fit a man who would be both our first Grand Master and the second Attorney General of Kentucky!

Many Kentuckians had become frustrated with the thirteen union states. They gave them no relief from hostile Indians and offered no protection for Kentucky merchants on the Mississippi River used to transport their merchandise to New Orleans for sale. The Spanish territory on the west side of the Mississippi was more than three times the size of the union and controlled all the river traffic. In addition, in applying for statehood, restrictions were added, frustrating Kentuckians even more. It is no wonder that so many prominent Kentuckians, including ranking Masons, supported the succession of Kentucky to Spain. The conspiracy ultimately failed, but after Kentucky's statehood, it attempted to rise again under former Vice-President Aaron Burr!!!----What do you think?

Charles Snow Guthrie's book, "Kentucky Freemasonry 1788-1978" along with a very rare copy of "Doings of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, 1800–1900" by H.B. Grant, is available in the Masonic Library.

WILLIAM O. WARE LODGE OF RESEARCH - BOOK REVIEW

W. L. Wilmshurst's The Meaning of Masonry is a classic. First published in 1922, The Meaning of Masonry has challenged and encouraged Masons for nearly a century to look beyond the exoteric explanations and meanings assigned to the symbols and lectures of the Craft. Greater understanding of the aim and purpose of Masonry is available to those who genuinely search for it. Worshipful Bro. Kevin L. Schneider, Junior Deacon of William O. Ware Lodge of Research and a Past Master of Bradford Lodge No. 123 and Good Faith Lodge No. 95, offers the following review of The Meaning of Masonry.

THE MEANING OF MASONRY

W. L. Wilmshurst

In his 1958 address to the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Grand Master William O. Ware stated, "It is my firm conviction that, unless we, as members of this Ancient and Honorable Fraternity, become grounded in the true purpose and intent of the Fraternity, i.e., educated to its real meaning, we shall never see the Fraternity accomplish that for which it was founded." (The Grand Lodge of Kentucky F.&A.M., 68) He then proceeds to immediately quote Brother W. L. Wilmshurst who had eloquently expressed similar thoughts, three decades prior.

Grand Master Ware posed three questions to the craft, during his year of traveling to the subordinate lodges in Kentucky; one being: "What is Freemasonry?" This year, our namesake Lodge of Research is specifically addressing these questions propounded by MWGM Ware. In endeavoring to answer his first question, what better way to begin than by exploring the work that the Grand Master cited and recommended, The Meaning of Masonry.

The Meaning of Masonry consists of an Introduction by Wilmshurst and five "Chapters". The introduction alone is inspiring, in that it provides hope for those in the Craft, who have sought the benefits that membership promised and have found themselves disappointed to find the simple social or charitable gathering that many lodges have become. It is a refreshing sip for those who are really in thirst for the Secrets.

In his opening Chapter, The Deeper Symbolism of Masonry, the author presents the case, specifically, that Masonry "offers us in dramatic form and by means of dramatic ceremonial a philosophy of the spiritual life of man" and a "diagram for the process of regeneration" that is "consistent with every religious system that is taught outside of the Order" (Wilmshurst, 27). Additionally, he expounds upon benefits which our teachings can offer to its initiates.

In the second Chapter Wilmshurst discusses, Masonry as a Philosophy. Here he addresses in greater depth the completeness of Masonry as "a working philosophy for those brought within its influence" that answers the "need to those who are earnestly enquiring into the purpose and destiny of human life" (Wilmshurst, 63). He discusses the spectrum of lessons offered by the ritual, while addressing the allegorical nature of our rituals; and within this section he details why the candidate seeking light must undergo self-abnegation (as taught by the working tools) and the mental preparation (the Seven Liberal Arts & Sciences) to achieve the breadth of understanding which our system offers.

The third Chapter contains his Further Notes on Craft Symbolism. Herein, Wilmshurst elaborates further on the specific purpose of each of the Three Degrees. He explores how our Symbols teach the Philosophy (described in the previous chapter) and guide us to the Work which must be performed for our purification -and- to train our mind to be able to perceive the depth of the designs of the Great Geometrician. Once completed, the Mason will have raised himself to be truly the Dedicated Servant for which the Master prayed during the Initiation.

In the following Chapter, Wilmshurst, being a British Mason, expounds upon the wisdom offered in the Royal Arch. This Wisdom is more than the attainment of a simple "Word," as offered in the some present Royal Arch Chapters. To obtain the benefits of the Royal Arch requires that "its candidate has passed through a long, strenuous period of purification and mental discipline" (Wilmshurst, 144). Only after this, can one be open to the revelation of the complete depth of his relationship to the Great Architect and thus know the True Word.

In the final Chapter, our Brother presents a discussion on The Relationship of Masonry to the Ancient Mysteries. In the introduction to this book, Wilmshurst asserts that Masonry is but a "modern" adaptation of the same path for those seeking enlightenment, as that which has been taught since time immemorial. By his own admission, this chapter was the most difficult for our Brother to pen. The historical documentation connecting our Mystery School to those of the past is, for all intents and purposes, non-existent. However, Wilmshurst definitively shows the connections and similarities to the schools of ancient Greece, those of the Egyptian, and even to the philosophical underpinnings of the Judeo-Christian religions. This section will be of limited interest to those seeking to understand the historical origins of our Craft. But to this reader, it is insignificant to the information proffered in the rest of the work.

In summary, Most Worshipful William O. Ware gave us wise counsel that this book is a must read for those Brothers, who are seeking to understand the deeper purpose of our Craft. It describes a path and process, which guides the reader to be able to operatively find Light. However, be forewarned of the approaching danger which might befall you, should you choose to proceed.

This book must be consumed in small segments (fewer than five pages in a sitting) to truly appreciate the totality of its contents. Wilmshurst's work will, if fully understood, answer many previously unanswered questions. The Meaning of Masonry could (and should) serve as the basis for quality education topics for the Lodge.

It is probable that Wilmshurst will also send you down many rabbit-holes in your quest for Masonic knowledge. It is even more likely that you will certainly no longer be satisfied with the trivial explanation of our "mysteries," as taught in the typical lodge. And it is certain that the reader will never again see Masonry as superficial, after reading this work.

The Meaning of Masonry is readily available from most major online retailers.
