Happy New Year!

GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

JAMES H. GIBSON
Grand Master 2021-2022

Greetings and Happy New Year on behalf of myself and the Elected Grand Lodge Officers! I pray each of you had a joyous Christmas with your families and friends. I am so excited to be entering a new year of fellowship with all of you, and I look forward to seeing you at the many events we have planned for 2022. This month, as with last month, we are still in the throes of lodge installations and special events. The Grand Lodge Officers and I are excited to visit and either attend or take part in these happy occasions.

As we start the annual tradition of making New Year's resolutions, I want to share a thought with you on how important resolutions are to Freemasonry.

Recently, I looked up the definition of resolution, and it was described in Miriam-Websters Dictionary as an act of resolving or determining upon an action, or a mental state or quality of being resolved. Other words used for resolution were resolve, determination, perseverance, tenacity, strength, and fortitude. As Masons, we resolved to be better men and with that determination, we surrounded ourselves with likeminded brothers to encourage each other, to set aside the worldly distractions, and through perseverance we continually challenge each other to seek enlightenment through our ancient teachings and tenets. Because of this we shrug off the things that attempt to prevent us from being moral and upright before God and man. The sheer tenacity of choosing to be different from the rest of the world, coupled with the strength and encouragement of each other as we build ourselves into better men and Masons, illustrates that we have the fortitude to weather adversity and outside influences. This makes Freemasonry more prevalent in our daily lives and in the lives of our families and communities. Thank you for being resolute in your obligations, in your attendance, and in your support for this Fraternity. With that in mind, I ask you, what resolutions will you make for this year?

As a reminder, on Saturday, January 22nd, we will be broadcasting the Education webinar to the satellite locations determined by your District Deputy Grand Masters. The broadcast will begin at 12:00 noon, Eastern Standard Time. As stated in the Book of Constitutions Article 11 (C) Section 1 (8), it is the Master's duty "to attend the District Meeting and Educational Conference held in the District and Region, or if unable to attend, to see that his lodge is represented thereat." (2005). After the webinar, the Committee on Masonic Education will be appearing at the following locations and dates to provide in-person educational conferences:

- Friday, January 28 Madisonville Scottish Rite, 668 Park Avenue, Madisonville.... 7:00pm CST
- Saturday, January 29 Columbia Lodge #96, 411 Burkesville Street, Columbia... 10:00am CST
- Saturday, January 29 Louisville Scottish Rite, 200 E. Gray Street, Louisville..... 5:00 pm EST
- Friday, February 4 Crittenden-Dry Ridge #694 111 S. Main St., Crittenden 7:00pm EST
- Saturday, February 5 Hazard Lodge #676 548 Main Street, Hazard..... 10:00am EST
- Saturday, February 5 Morehead #654 746 West Main Street, Morehead 4:00pm EST

We look forward to seeing you in our travels as we continue to visit throughout the Commonwealth. As we embark on this exciting new year, I am reminded of the words of poet Edith Lovejoy Pierce, "We will open the book. Its pages are blank. We are going to put words on them ourselves. The book is called Opportunity and its first chapter is New Year's Day." May God bless each of you, and may he continue to bless this Fraternity.

Fraternally Thine,
James H. Gibson

2021 Masonic Masquerade

It was a night of glitz and glam at the Masonic Masquerade held Friday, Nov. 5 to raise funds for Sproutlings Day Care & Pediatric Preschool at Kosair Charities Center. The event, held at The Olmsted, included a dinner, signature drink, silent and live auction followed by live music from Wax Factory. The always fabulous Shannon Cogan, WAVE-3 anchor, served as emcee.

Thanks to those who attended, sponsored and donated, the Gala raised more than $50,000 for Sproutlings. A special thanks to Title Sponsor, Incipio Workforce Solutions.

On November 18th, 2021, Paintsville Elementary Head Start representative Kathy Adams reached out to the Master of Paintsville Lodge No. 381 about a dilemma the school had encountered. The group or entity that donated annually to the children's Christmas shoe and gift program had backed out of the program for the year. The program assists low-income children within the Head Start Program that need that little extra amount of Love at Christmas time. Within 48 hours, the Officers and members of the Lodge gathered to donate $1750.00 to the wonderful program. *First photo: Master Phillip Blair, Kathy Adams and Brian Auxier with Paintsville Head Start, Past Master Otto Hyden and Brother Matt Runyon. ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

I sincerely hope and pray that you and your Families had a Merry Christmas or Happy Hanukkah. What a joyous time to spend with family and friends. As we embark on a new Masonic year, let us all rededicate ourselves to the principles, tenets and landmarks that have allowed our Fraternity to weather the test of time.

If you have not visited your Valley in a while, your attendance would be most appreciated. To renew old friendships and make new ones. There is always something for you to do there if you so choose.

I look forward to another successful year in the Orient of Kentucky and with the help of Almighty God and our good Brethren, our goals will be accomplished.

Fraternally,
Terry L. Bowman, PGM 33°
SGIG in Kentucky

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Brothers,

I hope you had a wonderful Christmas season, and that you are looking forward to a new year. With the chaos we have experienced the past couple of years, are you making plans for a better future? In 2022, how will you live your life? Will you look back and be in fear?

In the book of Genesis, Chapter 19 we read about Lot's encounter with the angels, and how God spared his life as well as the lives of his family members. However, Genesis 19:26 tells us how Lot's wife looked back and became a pillar of salt. God had made a way for Lot and his family, but fear and disobedience cost them dearly.

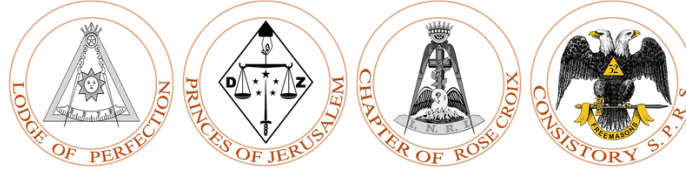

Brothers, it's time to look forward. It's time to have faith that our fraternity will grow and prosper. It's time to stop hiding our light under a basket, and show the world that we have what they desire. Western Kentucky Consistory will be dark in January and February, but we are gearing up to have an outstanding year. I hope that you will be a part of it. Our fraternity has so much to offer.

I hope that you and your family are blessed and enjoying life to the fullest.

Fraternally,
Douglas W. Bunch, 32° KCCH Personal Representative
Western Kentucky Scottish Rite, Valley of Madisonville

COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

"I Didn't Know That....."

The beginning of the New Year is perhaps a good time to reflect on some of the Grand Masters who made Kentucky Masonry great. One in particular, would be Rob Morris PGM (1858-59) author of several Masonic newspapers, Masonic books and his somewhat famous "The Universal Masonic Library", a 30 volume set bound in leather and selling then for $50.00 a set. He set lodges to work as far away as Jerusalem (Royal Solomon Lodge #293), the first Masonic lodge in the Holy land. For a time he ran the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Masonic College in LaGrange, Kentucky. He was also held in high esteem for writing the ritual for the Order of the Eastern Star.

Rob Morris; literary skills were highly respected in his time, his name often mentioned in the same breath as Albert Macke and Albert Pike. Frequently, he was frequently requested to write poems for special Masonic occasions. His book "The Poetry of Freemasonry" containing over 400 of his compositions was published in 1884, the same year Morris was named 'Poet Laureate of Freemasonry'. He succeeded Scottish poet Robert Burns, so honored in 1784. In tribute to our Past Grand Master of Kentucky, a copy of his most famous poem "The Level and the Square" is on the following page.

The Level and the SquareBy Rob Morris

We meet upon the level and we part upon the square
 These words have precious meaning and are practiced everywhere
 Come let us contemplate them, they are worthy of a thought
 From the ancient times of Masonry these symbols have been taught

We meet upon the level, every country, sect and creed
 The rich man from his mansion, the poor man from the field
 For wealth is not considered within our outer door
 And we all meet on the level upon the checkered floor.

We act upon the Plumb the Junior Warden states
 We walk upright throughout our lives, we seek the pearly gates
 The All-seeing Eye that reads our hearts doth bear us witness true
 That we shall try to honor God and give each man his due

We part upon the square as all good Masons do
 We mingle with the multitude a faithful band and true
 So the brotherhood of Masonry from every corner come
 To meet upon the level and act upon the plumb.

There's a world where all are equal we're coming to it fast
 We shall meet upon the level there when the days on earth are past
 We shall stand before the altar and our Master will be there
 To try the blocks we offer with his own unerring square

We shall meet upon the level there but never thence depart
 There's a Mansion ... 'tis all ready for each trusting, faithful heart
 There's a Mansion and a welcome and a multitude is there
 Who have met upon the level and been tried upon the square.

Let us meet upon the level then while these earthly ties we share
 And just hope we're there to answer when the roll is called up there
 As we travel through our lifespan time aids us prepare
 To gather up our working tools and part upon the square

So remember all our teachings, that bright fraternal chain
 We part upon the square below to meet in heaven again
 These words have precious meaning and are practiced everywhere
 We meet upon the level and we part upon the square.

.....What do you think?

Special 'thank you' to Brother Bill Kramer for his generous donation which enabled your Library to purchase a hard bound copy of "Commercial Providence: The Secret Destiny of the American Empire", written by Dr. Patrick Mendez, a visiting foreign policy scholar (John Hopkins University). look at Rob Morris, Nancy Stearns Theis PhD (Oldham Co.
