138TH YEAR OF PUBLICATION

Aurora Lodge & River City Lodge joined together and put flags on Veterans' and Masons' graves at Evergreen Cemetery (Masonic Section #24).

GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

JAMES H. GIBSON
Grand Master 2021-2022

Greetings brothers! Jumping right into July, I want to thank everyone that attended the District Meetings this year. I was able to keep the meetings within a 2-hour time span and still managed to cover all of the critical elements of topics and information to discuss. Thank you to my District Deputy Grand Masters who hosted and conducted exceptional meetings. Your duties are not over as I am sure you will be continuing to represent with honor and distinction the Grand Master at the several lodges you visit. Also, thank you to the many wives who hosted the wonderful ladies programs during the meetings. Your support is so appreciated.

Although the District Meetings have finished, there is no rest for your Grand Lodge Officers as we continue to conduct the business of the Craft of Kentucky. We have been working diligently to represent Kentucky and several of the Elected Grand Lodge Officers traveled out of state to neighboring jurisdictions. Soon, we will be attending the Southeast Conference in Arkansas, where we will be networking with other jurisdictions and discussing important issues that affect Freemasonry.

Some very important events are coming up that you should be aware of. Congratulations to Williamsburg Lodge #490 as they celebrate their 150th Anniversary, as well as Cub Run #910 who is having their 100th Anniversary on July 9th at noon. Both of these monumental events highlight the resilience of our Fraternity. Last month, I awarded Temple Hill Lodge #276, Madison Lodge #183, and Grant Lodge #85 with $2000.00 scholarships to present to a high school graduate of their choice. Each of these lodges accumulated the most points pursuing the Grand Master's Traveling Ark & Anchor. Congratulations brothers on a fantastic job! In August, we are conducting the Ritual Competition in six locations across the state. You will find the information further in this issue.

Brothers, here is where my article is going to take on a more serious tone. I have been honored to travel the state and spend priceless time with many brothers. The only regret I have had this year is having to address racism in areas and with individuals. Kentucky Freemasonry has no room whatsoever for the archaic notion that someone isn't entitled to become a Freemason just because of the color of their skin. When someone petitions our lodges, we should consider it the ultimate compliment that they want to become part of the greatest Fraternity in the world. Our order is founded on the sublime basis of honor, truth, and virtue, none of which is impacted by skin color. When we consider petitions and potential candidates, it is based on their character and their willingness to submit to our teachings and tenets. Brothers strive to be better men and improve themselves and by extension, their communities. Our Constitution and included resolutions stand firm in the fact that race, creed or color cannot and will not play a role in the determination of one's eligibility to become a Kentucky Freemason. When it comes to the Book of Constitutions, we must obey the entirety of it, rather than cherry-picking what we like and disregarding the rest. Last year, Most Worshipful Past Grand Master Ernest Jackson's philosophy was that we are all on the level, meaning no one person is greater or lesser than the other. If we adhere to the working tools of our profession, there is no way we can justify racial ignorance. We are all God's children. I simply can't imagine the Great Architect of the Universe turning a blind eye to hatred on any level. Remember brothers, you cannot change what you tolerate. If you tolerate hatred, hatred will be your way of life. I love you all. This has weighed on me more than any other issue I have been confronted with, primarily because we are all better than this. Consider my words; do the right thing. God bless you all. Have a joyous summer, and I will see you soon!

Fraternally Thine,
James H. Gibson

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

As I think back to the reason I became a Mason, my thoughts flood back to the men that influenced that decision. I knew very little about the Fraternity and the ideals and tenets we stand for. This was before the Internet, Facebook and the like. Of course, my father had a huge influence, as well, some of the men at Church and at work.

It was not till I received the Master Mason Degree and started reading all I could get my hands on that the teachings of the Craft would be a life changing event, How influential our Fraternity has been in the forming of our Country, the many of our Members who fought and died for the freedom of our new Nation. The many men of our Craft who have acted with class and honor in their life pursuits.

We celebrate the 4th of July this month, the beginning of the greatest nation the world has ever seen. As the members of the oldest and greatest Fraternity the world has ever seen, let us be proud of our Masonic Heritage and espouse the morals and uprightness of our Character. The world is watching us Brethren, so lets all act like Masons, talk like Masons, that our Brothers of the past would be proud of the way we are carrying on the tradition.

It is our duty to carry the flame of independence, to protect our Country from inside and outside forces that are bent on destroying our Democracy. Hold true to your Masonic teachings and be brave and heroic against those that choose, for their own gratification, to do us harm.

May our God in Heaven be with you and yours and our Country and our Fraternity!

Sincerely and fraternally,
Terry L. Bowman, PGM, 33°

2022, A Shemitah Year (Hebrew Year 5782)

Jewish beliefs teach that there is a cycle of years. The cycle occurs in sevens and the 7th year is called the Shemitah year. It was a year of BLESSING. During the Shemitah year no farming or harvesting was to be done and the land was allowed to rest. In Genesis 1 we are told of what GOD created in 6 days, but it is often overlooked that on the 7th day He created rest. The Shemitah year was a year of blessing for those who obeyed GOD by resting. Those who did not observe the Shemitah rest would come into judgment.

The literal meaning of Shemitah is “the year of release.” After 7 Shemitah years (49 years) the next year (50th) is the year of Jubilee. There was great anticipation for the year of Jubilee. Debts were released and slaves were allowed to go free.

There is blessing and chaos in a Shemitah year (Deuteronomy 30:19). Here are a few modern examples of Shemitah years and some of the blessings and chaos that happened: The Turks took over the land of Israel (1916-1917), The Great Depression (1929), The Dust Bowl in Oklahoma, Kansas, and Texas (1934-41), The Stock Market Crash (1937-38), Israel becomes a nation (1948), The Golan Heights were returned to Israel during the 6 Day War (1967), Abortion was legalized (1973), Operation Moses began bringing Ethiopian Jews back to Israel (1984).

It is important to remember that the Hebrew calendar does not always start at what most of us consider the “start time,” meaning it sometimes starts in August, September, or October. I wanted to add a little something different to this month’s article just to make you think about another perspective.

On July 9th, Western Kentucky Scottish Rite will have their Spring Reunion. Registration will begin at 7 a.m. The 4th degree conferral will begin at 8 a.m. I hope to see you there.

Douglas W. Bunch, 32° KCCH Personal Representative

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION
COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

"I Didn't Know That....."

At the age of 13 years Canadian born William Wallace Dudley (1851-1938) held an apprenticeship to a maker of ship chronometers, which afterwards led him to the United States where Dudley began his career as a model maker by Waltham Watch Company. He was thereafter employed by several watch manufacturers before retiring at the age of 69 years as both designer and superintendent from the Hamilton Watch Company in Pennsylvania.

Several years before his retirement in 1920, Dudley began actively working on a Masonic pocket watch idea, which would include Masonic symbols in its workings. Dudley was a longtime York Rite and Scottish Rite Mason and wanted to produce a high quality pocket watch that reflected his interests. The design would include: the letter G, the Holy Bible, a slipper, the trowel, plumb, level, with the square and compass in a gold case. Many parts would be utilized from other watch companies. The Model 1 was a size 14, open face was granted a patent in 1923. It is estimated that less 1400 of this model was made. Many were later melted down when gold reached a premium.

Demand for a smaller pocket watch led to a size 12 in both the Model 2, with a gold-filled case and later, the Model 3 with some minor changes in the Masonic symbols. The watches sold for $125.00 to $250.00, a lot of money for the average Mason in that period, and competition was heavy. The struggling company was hit hard with the invention of the 'wrist watch', which quickly became popular and Dudley's dream came to an end. On February 28, 1925, Dudley filed for bankruptcy. He had lost nearly everything and returned to work at the Hamilton Watch Company where he retired at age 80.

P. W. Baker Company continued to produce the watch from 1925 to 1935. It is estimated that fewer than 2600 Dudley watches were produced between the 1920 and 1935 period. The XL Watch Company of New York continued to manufacture them from 1935 to 1976.

Because of the rarity of the Dudley watch, it became a popular item with collectors and Masons alike. Collectors seek to obtain all three models. Today a near perfect Dudley watch with a box can easily sell for as much as $6000.00. However with the 'not so perfect' watches, the price can drop considerably as parts are difficult to find.

So how does this all tie in with Kentucky? The Wadsworth Watch Case Company (1892-1953) Newport, Kentucky-Dayton, Kentucky, began by manufacturing gold-filled cases for watch manufacturers and in 1902, expanded to 14 carat solid gold cases. Wadsworth Watch Case Company became known for its superior quality and workmanship and was one of the leading manufacturers producing watch cases for the industry.

They fabricated many of the cases for the Dudley Masonic pocket watches. A large number of their employees came from Dayton, Bellevue, and Newport, Kentucky, including many Masons from the three Lodges in the area, specifically Robert Burns #163, Newport #358 (both in Newport) and Henry Barnes #607, in Dayton, Kentucky. Robert Burns #163 was the Mother Lodge of the other two. When Wadsworth sold to Elgin National Watch Company and closed its doors in 1953 it put a great hardship on the locale, particularly in Dayton where the plant was located. It took many years for the area to recover. The three Masonic Lodges are now reunited in Newport as Trinity #163.

Donald M. Estes, a Past Grand Commander of Knights Templar of Kentucky (1989-90) was an avid collector of Masonic jewelry, particularly gold Masonic jewels. At the time of his death in July, 2009, he is said to have owned seven or eight Dudley watches in his collection. The National Watch & Clock Museum in Columbia, PA, has several Dudley watches for public view. The 1979 booklet William Wallace Dudley and his Masonic Watch by authors Jr. Victor Stoltz and E. H. Parker tells the complete story with great photos of the different models and parts, however the booklet is no longer in print.

.....What do you think?

The MLMA – Covington Library is growing. For a $100.00 donation, you can be a "Friend of the Library". A new, high quality Masonic book will be purchased for the Library, and your name will be placed inside as a "Friend of the Library" for future generations to read and see.

Preserving The Past and Securing The Future

Preserving the past and securing the future --- a phrase and a motto that many of us, as Free and Accepted Masons are familiar with. But what does the phrase mean? And more importantly, what does it mean to Freemasons? To start a basic analysis of the phrase requires a definition of the terms contained therein. Preserve in its common usage is defined as the act of maintaining something in its original or existing state. As Freemasons we are familiar with our Ancient Charges and especially with the admonition that, "it is not within the authority nor the prerogative of any Mason, nor any body of Masons to stray from, alter or change the basic tenets of Masonry. The past simply refers to things that have occurred prior or before the current moment, The past to Freemasons is our heritage. To secure is to be free of threat; and, certain to remain or continue safe and unharmed. To the Freemason securing the future is possibly interpreted as exerting efforts to insure that our Fraternity remains safe from harm and stable for the ages. In essence, we as Freemasons are encouraged to maintain our Fraternity in its purest form so as to keep it intact for those that follow.

How do we do this? How do we preserve the past while working to secure the future? Ask three men and you will likely get three answers. And, that it is exactly what makes our Fraternity strong. For, in each of the answers and responses to this most rhetorical of questions there is useful insight, personal experience and knowledge to be gained. We are all familiar with the concept of planning, both short-term and long-term. We are at the precipice of one of the most important times in Freemasonry possibly since the end of World War II. Following the end of the Second World War fraternalism in all arenas saw a swell and a glutton. We now find ourselves on the opposite end of that spectrum. All areas of Freemasonry are seeing declines in membership numbers...whether by the advancing age and deaths of our senior members, increased suspensions for non-payment of dues, or a decrease in petitions for membership. Whatever the underlying reason, the result is the same...a continued reduction in our numbers. It is our task to preserve the past and secure the future. We have the tools and the resources to accomplish our task. We live in the day of instant communication. We have communities that are welcoming any and all types of community service and involvement with enthusiasm. I encourage each of you to support your Home Lodge. Volunteer to organize and chair an ad-hoc committee to develop and/or update your website and other social media platforms. Speak with your Master and offer to contact your local travel and tourism office to inquire about potential ways to assist your community as well as have your Lodge's information displayed on their site. You, who are Scottish Rite Masons, reach out to your Valley and offer to represent The Scottish Rite next spring at the presentation of the ROTC and JROTC Scottish Rite Awards. The opportunities are endless and each comes with the satisfaction of the knowledge that you are working and exerting your efforts to Preserve The Past and Secure The Future.

To paraphrase our Illustrious Brother John Glenn, "We can't relive our lives." Therefore, let's all strive to do what we can to insure the future of our Fraternity.

Carl W. Gibson
Secretary
Valley Of Lexington

Hello Sir Knights, Squires and Emeritus Members!

First off, I'd like to thank everyone who came out for, and participated in the 29th Degree!

June is going to be a very busy month for us, so I wanted to remind everyone of important, upcoming events for the Knights.

Thursday June 9th is our Scottish Rite Flag Day and Family Dinner, the Knights will be greeting at the door so please plan on being out front by 6:00 pm, Class A dress.

Saturday June 11th - is conclusion of the Spring Reunion, with the 30th through 32nd degrees. The Knights perform the role of the “Army” in the 32nd Degree and this is a fun, low pressure way to be involved. Plan on being there early as we will go over a few items and practice a little sword work. Please wear class A uniforms.

Thursday June 23rd - the Battle of Bannockburn, and my favorite event of the year! I'm still trying to lock down bagpipers for this event, but the Scottish Society of Louisville plans on joining us, and this event is open to the public. There are 5 speaking parts: (John Adkins - Commander, Jack Shacklett - Warden, Chris Ensslin - Captain, Tom Harper - Chaplain, Ed Meredith - Adjutant). The two nonspeaking parts are the Marshal - Gary Waggoner and the Standard Bearer - Rick Harrison. However, all Knights and Squires will be involved with the production.

John Adkins, 32°, Knight Commander

CHANGE SERVICE REQUESTED

Paris Lodge #2 Free & Accepted Masons held their annual “Awards and Family Night” on Tuesday, August 10, 2021 at the Bourbon County Park in Paris, Kentucky. The lodge provided a catered meal with grilled steaks, hamburgers, hot dogs and all the usual side dishes and desserts. In addition to members and their Families, Awardees, and our lodge Widows, our invited Special Guests this year were our Bourbon County’s First Responders which included members of the Paris Fire Department, Bourbon County Fire Department, Bourbon County Sheriff’s Department, and Paris Police Department. Some 23 of our Special Guests attended and were fed and entertained. Some mighty fine music was provided by Brother Denzil Vanderpool PM and his fantastic Band. Master Justin Kinder started the evening by having the lodge chaplain give the prayer, followed by all rendering the “Pledge of Allegiance” to our Flag. He then presented awards to: Brother Charles F. McCann, Jr. PM his 65 Year Service Pin & Certificate, Brother Denzil A. Vanderpool, Sr. PM his 40 Year Service Pin & Certificate, Brother George H. Luckey, Jr. the “Outstanding Service Appreciation Certificate”, and Brother Earl B. Sosby, Jr. PM the “Mason of the Year – 2021”, this was the first time this award has ever been presented within Paris Lodge #2. Brother Masons properly masked and gloved operated the food line and placed the prepared food on the plates as those attending passed. Thanks to them for a job well done. This was another very good night for Masonry in Kentucky.
