SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

Digital Photos are the preferred format. 300 DPI (or as large as you can) Please consider your subject matter and lighting. Provide a list of names of the individuals in the photo.

Word documents are the preferred format for the articles. Please send photos as separate files. Thanks for your help. As April is upon us, we are now enjoying the benefits of warmer spring weather, seeing creation awaken to life, and likely looking forward to all summer has to bring. This is also the month that Christians celebrate Easter and focus on the lessons of forgiveness, restoration, and renewal. Brenda and I hope that you all take time to enjoy this special season, seize opportunities to be with your families, and focus on those things that are truly most important.

In our Grand Jurisdiction, April is also the month lodges may begin suspending delinquent brothers for non-payment of dues. Having served as a lodge secretary, I certainly understand the difficult situations and challenges presented by the process of suspensions. I think we can all agree, we are losing far too many members to suspension. What can we do to reduce these numbers? We can begin by considering three key factors: Care, Collaboration, and Communication.

Being our Brothers' Keeper, we should care that a brother, any brother, has fallen behind in his dues. This care should motivate us to ask why. Is there something we have done? Is there something we have not done? Is the brother disappointed? Is there a health or financial problem? We should care enough about our brothers to ask these questions and seek the answers.

Second, we must leave behind the idea that membership challenges lay solely in the hands of our Secretaries or other lodge officers and commit to collaborate, to work with them, toward improving the delinquency and suspension issue. We can ask for a list of delinquent brothers, see if there are any we know, reach out to the brother, ask the necessary questions, offer solutions, and follow through.

Finally, we must maintain communication with our brothers. It is both sad and convicting that secretaries find themselves without current contact information for brothers facing suspension. Do we communicate with our brothers so infrequently that basic information is lost? Members do bear the responsibility of ensuring the lodge has their contact information but surely we can establish a process to regularly maintain and audit contact information to ensure accuracy and consistency. Perhaps we know when a brother moves or his situation changes, be proactive and see if the secretary is aware of that change. I challenge each lodge to establish an outreach committee to contact all members to update information, contact specific inactive members, and work together maintain the brotherhood; it is what we should be doing, We Are Our Brothers Keeper.

Again, I hope you enjoy this Easter season, time with your families, and the blessings of God's creation. Your Grand Lodge Officers continue to look forward to fellowship in our travels and the remaining District Meetings. May God continue to bless you, our fraternity, our veterans and first-responders, and our Country.

Fraternally Thine, E. Darren Wilson Grand Master of Masons Grand Lodge of Kentucky F&AM

Brethren,
Have you noticed in our Masonic Home Journal the tremendous Charitable work many Lodges are doing? Freemasonry is living out our Ancient and Honorable Tradition of assisting those who need a helping hand. From our Masonicare Residence at our Masonic Homes to Tornado and Flood victims to giving a bicycle to a child and many other programs.
Your Scottish Rite continues to support Language Pathology Programs to help children with speech issues prepare for school and assistance for Brethren and their families. If you are looking to help your fellow man, you need not look to far.
Your Consistory by now has or will this month begin their Reunions for the year. The Leadership at the Valley's are working very hard to make the Reunions a success in making the Scottish Rite experience one to remember. Your assistance in making that experience would be most helpful. There is a place for your talents in many areas of your Consistory. Let's get reacquainted with your brothers at the Temple. Also, many thanks to the devoted members who are there every time the doors are open to do what they can to make their Valley successful.
May our Heavenly Father continue to Bless you and your Family, our Service Members and First Responders, our Nation and our Great Fraternity!

CLASS REUNION HONORING BROTHER JOHN E. MOYERS, PGM 33° SGIG

Greetings Brothers,

On April 1st, the John E. Moyers PGM 33° SGIG Reunion was held. A class picture and more details will be published in upcoming Masonic Home Journals. Brother Moyers originally hailed from Western Kentucky. He truly loved the Masonic fraternity and promoted unity whenever possible. If we ever hope to reverse our declining membership numbers, we will need to follow the examples of our Masonic mentors such as Brother Moyers.

This year each of the Valleys has renewed their commitment for Masonic unity with the guidance of Brother Terry Bowman, PGM 33° SGIG. It has been a privilege working in unity with Brother Dan Lynn, Chairman of the Veteran's Committee, Grand Lodge of Kentucky F&AM in preparation for our upcoming Veteran's Dinner. I am pleased to announce that the Appreciation Dinner in Honor of our Veterans will be held at West Kentucky Consistory on Saturday, June 17th at 4:00 PM. The Consistory is located next door to the Kentucky Army National Guard Armory. This will be the very first of many dinners. Major General Jerry D. Humble, USMC (Ret) will be the guest speaker. If you are a veteran, please allow us to honor you at this meal. If you are a brother that would like to come and support our veterans, we gladly await your attendance.

West KY Scottish Rite Clubs get ready. I plan to visit soon. I will be bringing glasses, and just like last year the only way to get one is to be present at the meeting.

May GOD Bless You as we reach toward the future in unity,

Douglas W. Bunch, 32° KCCH Personal Representative Western Kentucky Scottish Rite, Valley of Madisonville

Greetings My Brethren All,

The first part of our Spring Reunion class in honor of Illustrious John E. Moyers 33°, PGM, SGIG, began on March 4, 2023. We welcomed nine new Brothers to the Valley of Louisville Scottish Rite. The start of this class brought about enthusiasm and anticipation on what is yet to come, as they await the conclusion of this class. All degrees, whether conferred or communicated, depicted some of the many beautiful lessons Masonry has to offer. May the Life, Legacy and Memories of Illustrious John E. Moyers 33° live on for eternity through this class, and the many Masons whose lives he touched throughout his Masonic career.

We encourage you to come out and show your support to our newest members of our Valley, as they continue their journey to become Scottish Rite Masons.

As we make plans for the year, please consider supporting our various programs and events throughout the year. Bullitt County Scottish Rite Club will have their annual Road Rally and Fun Run on May 20, 2023. See the attached flyer for more details.

The Scottish Rite Gala which was published in the 2023 Calendar of Events for September 16, 2023, has been rescheduled for Saturday October 7, 2023. Sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused. We hope you will support this event by donating items for the silent auction and purchasing your ticket to attend.

May God bless and protect each of you and our great nation

Fraternally thine,

Geary F. Laird, PGM, 32° KCCH Personal Representative Valley of Louisville

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE "I Didn't Know That....."

Most Kentucky Masons are familiar with the story of Joseph Hamilton Daveiss (1774-1811). He was killed in the Battle of Tippecanoe while serving as the eighth Grand Master of of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. His sword and portrait are displayed in the Grand Lodge of Kentucky's office. There is much more to the story of Joseph Hamilton Daveiss: his life as a man, a soldier and a Mason.

According to Kentucky Masonic Historian Charles Snow Guthrie, Joseph Hamilton Daveiss, (Daviess or Davis) was born in Bedford County, Virginia on March 4, 1774. At the age of 5 years, his family moved and settled near the current area of Danville, Kentucky. Privately educated, he studied law under George Nicholas, as did Jesse Bledsoe and Felix Grundy. Daveiss was admitted to the bar in 1796 and in his first case before the Court of Appeals, he defeated his teacher, George Nicholas. Daveiss moved from Danville to Frankfort and was in 1800, appointed U.S. Attorney for Kentucky by President John Adams. He also was the first western attorney to argue a case before the Supreme Court. He married Anne Marshall, the sister of Chief Justice John Marshall, a Past Grand Master of Virginia. The couple lived briefly in Owensboro, before setting up a law practice in Lexington.

Reviewing the report of Lexington #1 dated April 5, 1802, to the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, reveals the names of Joseph H. Daveiss as a Fellowcraft and two other 'George Nicholas students', Jesse Bledsoe - a Master Mason; and Felix Grundy - an Entered Apprentice. Henry Clay also appears as Jr. Warden that same year. Jo, as his friends called him, was a friendly and likable young man and a highly respected attorney. Felix Grundy was admitted to the Kentucky bar in 1797, advancing to Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals. Later he became an U. S attorney from Tennessee and then Attorney General of the United States. Henry Clay and Jesse Bledsoe were considered two of the greatest legal minds of the time. All were members of Lexington Lodge #1, but Grundy finished his degree work in Washington Lodge #6 in Bardstown.

Aaron Burr, a Lieutenant Colonel under General George Washington, who also served as Jefferson's Vice-President (1801-1805), was politically an arch enemy of Alexander Hamilton. By 1804, their hatred for each other resulted in a duel whereby the Vice-President killed Hamilton. Running from probable arrest, he went first to Philadelphia and met with James Wilkinson, an American army officer, whose 'paid' loyalty was to Spain. Many years earlier, Wilkinson worked unceasingly to separate Kentucky and western territory for Spanish rule. Together Burr and Wilkinson hatched a plan to invade Mexico, which in turn they assumed, would win all the western territory for their own to govern.

In 1805, Burr came to Frankfort Kentucky and then to Lexington to promote the treasonous plan. In January 1806, U.S. Attorney Daveiss wrote to President Jefferson about Burr's suspicious activities. However it wasn't until November, 1806, that a disposition was read before the masonic brother, Judge Harry Innes who delayed proceedings allowing Burr time to secure Henry Clay to act his defense. Daveiss was assisted by William Murray the first Grand Master of Kentucky. After more delays, the Grand Jury finally dismissed all charges. This resulted in Daveiss being removed as U.S. Attorney for his inability to prevail. Burr would also be charged by others, but escaped a guilty verdict due to the government's strict definition of treason, but his reputation suffered greatly and ended the scheme.

The first lodge in Indiana territory, Vincennes Lodge #15, was instituted by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky on August 13, 1809. Joseph H. Daveiss was elected Grand Master of Kentucky on August 30, 1811 and on November 7, 1811, would be killed near the Wabash River in the Battle of Tippecanoe. Connecticut Freemason and Grand Historian James R. Case states, "Tecumseh and his twin brother the Shawnee Prophet were leaders in an attempt to confederate all the Indian tribes, forbid cession or sale of land to anyone and prevent the whites from coming farther west. William Henry Harrison, governor of Indiana, had been instructed from Washington to exercise a benevolent supervision over the Indians, to acquire title to the territorial lands in an orderly fashion, have them surveyed, and make them safe for settlement".

On the way to join Harrison's troops, Jo Daveiss as the Grand Master of Kentucky, met with the brethren of Vincennes Lodge, on September 18, 19, 21, and 22 and conferred all three degrees on four candidates, one of them being Colonel Isaac White. Both Daveiss and White were young, friendly, and shared the same thoughts. While having spent several days together as Masons; they became good friends as well as brothers. White then joined the Kentucky Dragoons under Jo Daveiss' leadership. Believing that battle lay just days ahead, White and Daveiss exchanged swords as an act of friendship.

In Tecumseh's absence, it was his brother, the Prophet, who aroused the warriors to strike first and at night as a surprise attack. The onslaught continued through the night. That morning Harrison's troops finally dispersed the assailants and then destroyed Shawneetown. The Prophet's failure to win the battle led to his being banned by his brother. Tecumseh then took the remainder of his warriors to Canada.

According to Indiana Masonic Historian Chris Hodapp, "Jo Daveiss went on to lead a courageous strike against the Indians at Tippecanoe where he fell, wounded in the chest, and Isaac White died not far from him. The bodies of Kentucky Grand Master and the newest Master Mason in the Indiana Territory, were laid side by side, their battle cloaks wrapped around them". Jo Daveiss' grandson would write that it was White's sword Daveiss carried into battle. Judge Levi Todd, Past Master of Montgomery Lodge #23, Sterling, Kentucky and former law student of Daveiss in Lexington, was given the sword and belt by Daveiss' widow. He then presented it to the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

Joseph Hamilton Daveiss may have saved the Western frontier twice: first from the treacherous acts of Aaron Burr, and later from Tecumseh and his brother. Indiana Masons would erect a memorial to Daveiss, as well as a historical marker near the battleground. His Masonic apron is currently in possession of the Indiana Grand Lodge Museum. Kentucky's Grand Lodge would commission a portrait of Daveiss later to be displayed with his sword. William Henry Harrison would say of Major Joseph Hamilton Daveiss, "Patriotic ambition was his ruling passion and he gave his life in a fight to advance the western frontier of his beloved country".

CHANGE SERVICE REQUESTED

NON PROFIT U.S. POSTAGE PAID Post Falls, ID PERMIT NO. 32

McNeil Masonic Lodge #586 in Lebanon Junction, KY. was able to place 20 bikes in the Lebanon Junction Elementary School along with the greatly appreciated help and support of The BeamSuntory Corporation.

The lodge and BeamSuntory have worked together for the last several years to place the bikes in the school, hoping to bring a smile to the faces of, and brighten the days of the young boys and girls who receive them for their achievements in attendance and the merit awards program of the school. Pictured above, along with the bikes are Greg Davis, Director of Distillation at both The Clermont and The Booker Noe Plants; Shawn Tibbs, Master of McNeil Lodge #586; Cindy Milliner, Distillery operator at The Booker Noe Plant; and Micheal Voils, Distillery Manager for The Booker Noe Plant located at Boston, Kentucky.
