SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

Digital Photos are the preferred format. 300 DPI (or as large as you can) Please consider your subject matter and lighting. Provide a list of names of the individuals in the photo.

Word documents are the preferred format for the articles Please send photos as separate files. Thanks for your help. Hello My Brothers,

As we enter the month of February we can share a sense of accomplishment, having concluded our Educational Committee meetings, and completed officer installations for the ensuing year. I want to express my appreciation to the Education Committee for putting together a great presentation and to express my thankfulness to all the brothers for their participation in the meetings. The education presentation was recorded and is available to view on the Grand Lodge website, I encourage you to use it in your home lodge for a night of instruction. If any assistance is needed in relation to the information presented, feel free to contact any one of the Education Committee members.

We also look forward, with excitement, as plans and preparations are being made for the District Meetings to begin in March. This period between the conclusion of the education presentations and our District Meetings would be a great time to practice ritual and, if you have not already, begin a routine of using an open evening to have a group practice. As Masons we should continue to search for "More Light" and strive to perform better rituals and ceremonies.

An appropriate and timely educational topic for this month might be a presentation regarding the Father of our Country, President George Washington, as his birthday is February 22nd. Brother Washington was a member of Fredericksburg Lodge in Fredericksburg Virginia, having been initiated on November 4th, 1752, Passed March 3, 1753, and Raised August 4th, 1753. Brother Washington went on to become the Charter Master of Alexandria Lodge No. 22 when it was re-chartered by the Grand Lodge of Virginia in 1788. When he was inaugurated President of the United States a bible from St. John's lodge #1 was used and the oath was administered by M.W. Robert Livingston, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of New York. Our fraternity is blessed to have so many important and impactful historical figures counted among our membership, sharing their history and accomplishments and contributions should motivate us to higher thoughts, greater deeds, and nobler achievements as well.

While we look back to history for encouragement and example, we can look forward with expectation to the future of the Craft, a future enriched by the contribution of young men and women now laboring in our youth programs. For those who have been asking, I do have some of my "Tacos for Kids" lapel pins left and I will have them with me as I travel until they are all sold. For those who do not know, I had these lapel pins made to sell and the proceeds will be distributed to the 3 Masonic youth groups, DeMolay, Rainbow, and Job's Daughters. These young men and women will be our future fraternal and community leaders and supporting them is our duty and we will all benefit from their successes.

As always "We are our Brother's Keeper," please remember our active-duty military and first responders in your thoughts and prayers. I am looking forward to the District Meetings beginning soon and hope to see you all there.

Fraternally Thine, E. Darren Wilson Grand Master of Masons Grand Lodge of Kentucky F&AM

Brethren,
Did you know that the much-heralded Master Craftsman Program of the Supreme Council is now on-line? There are five courses that can be taken and studied. Scottish Rite Members need to log on to our website (www.scottishrite.org) to receive more information. This program is also available to Master Masons who needs to fill out an application to prove their Membership.
There is so much Masonic Information offered at your Scottish Rite Consistory by witnessing the Historic Lessons and Degrees portrayed or communicated. The Educational Lectures given at the Business Meetings make for better understanding of our Gentle Craft. Hence, the Scottish Rite deserves the title of "The University of Freemasonry".
Brothers, pay a visit to your Consistory and rediscover the spark that led you to Freemasonries door.
My our Father in Heaven continue to Bless you and your Family and continue to Pray for our Brothers, our Nation and our Fraternity.

2023 WILL BE AN OUTSTANDING YEAR!!!

Did you make New Year's resolutions? How are you doing on your goals? Did your lodge set goals for 2023? Are the 5 elected officers (established by the Grand Lodge constitution) working in harmony? I'm not judging anyone; I'm getting back to the basics. Everyone knows it takes a strong foundation to build a structure that can withstand the storms. A strong foundation requires vision, wisdom, and unity.

Our vision at West Kentucky Consistory for 2023 looks like this:

On Thursday, March 16th we will confer Maundy Thursday. We will eat at 6:00 PM at meet at 7:00 PM CT. This is open to all Masons (including EAs and FCs) and their families. On Saturday, April 1st (no fooling) we will confer our 1 day class Spring Reunion. On Saturday, June 17th we will have a veteran's dinner. This is in conjunction with the Grand Lodge, and we are looking forward to starting a new tradition. On Saturday, September 23rd we will confer our 1 day class Fall Reunion. On Thursday, November 16th we will have our Christmas party for the kids and kids at heart. All of our stated meetings will have a meal at 6:00 PM and the meetings will begin at 7:00 PM CT.

Our wisdom comes when we gather together because iron sharpens iron. Our unity comes because we are determined to not allow strife into meetings. We are all brothers, and where there is strife, there is every form of evil. When we come together in unity there is a joy in our souls that is at times indescribable. Please come join us.

May GOD continue to Bless You throughout the year 2023,

Douglas W. Bunch, 32° KCCH Personal Representative Western Kentucky Scottish Rite, Valley of Madisonville

SUNDAY MORNING CLUB 35TH ANNUAL NORTHERN KENTUCKY CHRISTMAS DAY DINNER AT NEW LOCATION

The 35th Annual Northern Kentucky Christmas Day Dinner was held on Sunday, Dec. 25, to a sit-down dinner this year but at a new location — the Covington Scottish Rite building at 1553 Madison Avenue in Covington.

The full dinner, gifts, toys for the kids and more was served free-ofcharge from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Christmas Day. Once again, McHale's Events and Catering will prepare for the meal.

The Doors opened at 10:30 a.m.

Guests entered the door on the Kroger side of the building. Handicap accessibility is through the building's rear door.

The Covington Scottish Rite building is conveniently located on the TANK bus line.

"We are appreciative that the Covington Scottish Rite building was made available for this year's Christmas Dinner," said Tom Hall of The Sunday Morning Club, one of the dinner's main sponsors. "It is a beautiful building that will allow us to help hundreds of people and families enjoy a Christmas Dinner, receive gifts and toys, visit Santa Claus and celebrate the wonderful day that is Christmas."

As it has for more than 20 years, McHale's Events and Catering prepared the Christmas Day dinner – a full holiday meal including drinks and dessert.

"The Christmas Dinner is part of our family's holiday tradition," said Chuck McHale.

Everyone that attended the celebration received gifts, including toys for the children. The kids had their picture taken with Santa and have visits with Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer, Frosty the Snowman, Kentucky—a Great Horned Owl, Visiting Christmas Trees and Clowns making balloon figures.

Thanks to a donation from Bradford Lodge #123 Ky. F&AM of Independence, children's bicycles were raffled every half hour for ages 4 and up.

In addition to McHale's Events and Catering and The Sunday Morning Club, sponsors for this year's dinner were Advantage Tent and Party Rental, Busken Bakery, Cincinnati Building Trades, Covington Scottish Rite, Ron and Bonnie Halderman, Ironworkers Local 44, Master Provisions, Olive Garden Italian Kitchen, Perfetti van Melle, Performance Foodservice, PetSmart, Remke Markets, Road ID, TANK, Burr J. Travis, Tressa Inc. and Waltz Business Solutions.

Thanks is also extended to the Christmas Day Dinner committee, volunteers and sponsors who have supported this Dinner for many years by donating their time, talents, goods and dollars.

The dinner was dedicated to the late Tom Stanken, who for years was the dinner's main organizer. The dinner is always open to anyone but has traditionally served the needy, the homeless, and those who have nowhere else to go on Christmas Day.

The Sunday Morning Club, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, was founded in 1937, following the repeal of Prohibition. Bar owners, bartenders, waitresses, politicians and others would meet at local Northern Kentucky bars, which could not serve alcohol until 1 p.m. on Sundays. They began raising money for various charities, and over the years have supported Children's Home of Northern Kentucky, The Protestant Children's Home, The Diocese of Covington, Care Net, Good Guys Club of Walton, Kelly Elementary, the Indigent Home for Ladies and more.

Greetings My Brothers All,

It was a pleasure to see many of our members and several of our brothers from Blue Lodge who attended the Annual New Year's Day reception that we have each year. I wish each of you a healthy and prosperous New Year and success in all your Masonic endeavors.

We begin this new year with excitement and enthusiasm, encouraging attendance and involvement in your Scottish Rite Valley. The officers of 2022 who gave their time, efforts, and commitment, we thank you for your leadership and contributions to Scottish Rite Freemasonry. To our newly elected officers, it is with anticipation and support as you lead our fraternity in the year ahead, accomplishing your goals and plans ensuring the teachings of Freemasonry will continue to thrive and grow for many years to come.

This year's George Washington/Master Masons Night will be on February 23rd, the 3rd Section of the Master Mason Degree will be conferred at this meeting. With this being part of the Master Mason degree, only Master Masons are allowed to participate. There are several brothers that have not seen the 3rd section conferred, therefore this would be a good opportunity for them to receive this very important section of this degree. Please notify the Scottish Rite office of your intention to attend, so we have adequate food for all in attendance.

Our first reunion class for 2023 will start March 4th and conclude June 10th. This class will be in honor of a man that has contributed so much to Freemasonry here in Kentucky. Illustrious Brother John E. Moyers, 33° PGM, served the Grand Lodge in various capacities including Grand Master. He continued to serve Freemasonry in the Scottish Rite receiving several honors and attaining the office of Sovereign Grand Inspector General. Brother Moyers was also a member of the York Rite Bodies, Eastern Star, and numerous appendant bodies in Masonry. It is my hope that you will support and attend this reunion class, enabling us to continue the legacy of a truly remarkable man and mason.

I hope to see you soon. Be that mason that continues to teach the lessons of Freemasonry and exemplify them in our everyday lives!

Fraternally thine,

Geary F. Laird, PGM, 32° KCCH Personal Representative Valley of Louisville

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE "I Didn't Know That....."

The beautiful and true story of a Confederate civil war soldier taken captive by Union forces only to become seriously ill, then removed to the Union Commander's home to be cared for until the soldier could return home; would eventually lead to the writing of what many feel is the greatest Masonic book of all time. Such is the story of the Lee Newton, minister, lawyer and father of Reverend Joseph Fort Newton, author of "The Builders: A Story and Study of Masonry". Lee Newton was made a Mason in a Confederate Military Lodge and after capture and becoming deathly sick, was taken to the home of the Union Commander, a Brother Mason. The story is detailed in Allen E. Robert's 1996 book "House Undivided: The Story of Freemasonry and the Civil War" and can be found in other books as well. Joseph would later say, "The fact that such a fraternity of men could exist, mitigating the harshness of war and remain unbroken, when states and churches were torn in two, became a wonder, and it is not strange, I tried for years to repay my debt to it".

Born in Texas on July 21, 1880 and like his father, Joseph became a minister and a lawyer, studying at the Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky and Harvard University. He would later receive honorary degrees from various colleges and universities. In 1900, he married his sweetheart Jennie Mei Deatheridge from Sanders, Kentucky. In 1902, while pastoring in Illinois, he was raised a Master Mason in Friendship Lodge #7. But it was in Iowa that Brother Newton began to become famous.

At the University of Iowa, many of his sermons were printed and circulated not only within the states, but outside the states as well, particularly In England where they were found to be extremely popular. Books would follow. This would lead to printing of masonic papers and soon noticed by the Grand Lodge of Iowa. He served as Grand Chaplain for the Grand Lodge of Iowa (1911-1913), Grand Prelate of the Grand Encampment of the Knights Templar and Educational Director for the Masonic Service Association, where he published "Short Talks on Masonry". His most famous Masonic work, "The Builders: A Story and Study of Masonry" was printed in 1914. By popular demand, other books would follow.

In 1916, Newton traveled to England to accept the pulpit of City Temple in London, where he also presented lectures and orations on Masonry, becoming internationally well-known. He would return to live out the remainder of his life, ministering in Pennsylvania. He passed on to his heavenly reward on January 25, 1950. Before his death he was named one of the "Top Five Protestant Ministers" in the world.

"The Builders" contains these Chapters: "The Ante-Room; Prophecy; Foundations; Working Tools; Drama of Faith; Secret Doctrine; Collegia; History of EA, FC, and MM Degrees; Grand Lodge of England; Universal Masonry; What is Masonry; Masonic Philosophy; The Spirit of Masonry". Joseph Fort Newton had a way with words. He could paint pictures with words to tell a story like no other Masonic author. His beauty of expression, wisdom and love of God, was like no other. He is very much quoted today, and his book is rated on most lists of 'important Masonic books'. For well over one hundred years, it has been a best seller having been translated into languages around the world. But the book is not 'old'. Although newer information may have come to light on some subjects, very little editing would needed to bring it into the 21st century.

Obviously, room does not allow for a book report in this column, but is expected to be fully reviewed on the William O. Ware Lodge of Research web page in the near future. My suggestion is to "READ THIS BOOK!" It will open your mind and open your heart to what Freemasonry is truly about!

.....What do you think?
