HAPPY NEW YEAR

GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

E. DARREN WILSON
Grand Master 2022-2023

My brothers, I am excited that we have begun a New Year and with it a time for new beginnings and a renewing of our obligations. Re-obligation ceremonies remind us of our boundaries and responsibilities that we should never lose sight of. January is also a great time to review lodge by-laws and member contact information. It is wise to review by-laws early each year, following Grand Lodge, as our Constitution is often modified during the annual assembly, and it is important that our Lodge by-laws are not in conflict with those changes. Please note, if your by-laws do need to be modified, Article 11 (A) Powers, Section 2 of the Book of Constitution states that notices sent by mail or published in the Masonic Home Journal are the only two methods approved to notify members of the proposed amendments.

Please assist your lodge secretary in making sure he has your up-to-date contact information, including e-mail address. E-mail addresses are becoming more and more the preferred method of mass communication, this includes the electronic version of the Masonic Home Journal.

By now your District Deputy Grand Master has completed his first visit, has made sure the dates of the education presentations and district meetings are available, and reminded the secretary of the importance to report the new Lodge officers to the Grand Secretary's office by January 10th. It is also important that lodge secretaries return the lodge information sheets to the D.D.G.M in a timely manner, this provides essential information on the status of the lodges in each district. I am requiring each D.D.G.M obtain a current hardcopy of the by-laws from every lodge in their district, I appreciate your assistance in getting this task completed. As a Reminder, it is the duty of each lodge Master to attend, or send his designated representative to, the Education, District meeting, and the annual Grand Lodge communication.

New this year are two Masonic history quizzes, supported by the Masonic Scholars Committee, and now available on the Grand Lodge website. These history quizzes were developed by M.W. Cloyd Bumgardner PGM, and the information comes from a book written by M.W. H.B. Grant PGM titled "Doings of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Free and Accepted Masons and Historical Data of Its Subordinates with Sketches of Past Grand Masters and Numerous Tables Statistical. 1800-1900". My hope is that you will enjoy learning some history of our fraternity in Kentucky and use this as an education opportunity in your lodge. By all means, take these tests in a group setting, working together.

Your Grand Lodge officers and I look forward to visiting lodges as frequently as we can. If your lodge has an upcoming event, service pin presentation, anniversary celebration, or any other special event please forward this information to the office of the Grand Secretary as far in advance as possible. As always, "We are our Brothers Keeper" and remember our active-duty military and first responders in your thoughts and prayers.

Fraternally Thine,
E. Darren Wilson

Passionate People Inspiring Lives

Brother Jeremy Kifer Named Ambassador of the Year

At this year's Grand Communication, Brother Jeremy Kifer, District 20 Ambassador, was honored as the Ambassador of the Year.

A Mason at Budford Lodge No. 494 and Past Master of Landmark Lodge No. 41, Brother Jeremy has been an engaged Ambassador for many years. He has taken his role as Ambassador with dedication, enthusiasm, and creativity, consistently looking for ways to inform and educate Kentucky's Masons and others about Masonic.

Jeremy has an unselfish willingness to seek out more ways to help and further represent Masonic. This year, when neighboring Ambassador John Folden unexpectedly passed away, he went above and beyond his role and offered to represent the northern counties in District 21 along with his own district.

Masonic would like to extend congratulations and thanks to Brother Jeremy for committing his time and talent to Masonic's residents and mission.

Emergency Planning Committee

In December's edition, we wrote about the purpose of the Emergency Planning Committee. Still, we didn't get too deep into why preparing for the unthinkable is necessary. It isn't practical to develop well-laid plans for every possible scenario and outcome, however, some general action for an all-hazards model will put you in a better position than doing nothing at all. The level of preparedness really boils down to risk and how much we perceive as being tolerable. To practically illustrate risk, I carry various insurance coverages to protect against certain losses yet coverage for everything is unaffordable. Several important documents are kept in a vault that is not actually large enough to hold everything that should be there. How much risk a Lodge can tolerate will vary based on a number of factors and opinions. Several lodges impacted over the past year would advise you to allocate time now because we're all vulnerable.

The first step to improving the Lodge's preparedness is to take inventory of what matters most. Being that We Are Our Brother's Keeper, it should come as no shock that what we value is people. Start small by acquiring a well-stocked first-aid kit and making sure that exits are properly marked and free from obstructions. Exchange emergency contact in case a brother becomes ill or is injured.

Second to people is our history and thereby property. Do you know where the water main shutoff is? That might be something to know if you walked into a building with a burst pipe. Discuss the particulars of your facility situation and document key contact numbers for the local emergency services, utility companies, and even the Officers. Neighbors are especially important if they are tenants of the Lodge's building. Begin to assemble this information in a binder along with the emergency contacts and keep it all at a well-known location, such as the Secretary's desk.

The Emergency Planning Committee has developed a Lodge Emergency Plan template to help with your discussions. This document is available in the Secretary downloads section of the Grand Lodge website. It is by no means an all-encompassing document but you should find it helpful as you move forward with this effort. Finally, let this be a gentle reminder that completion of the Lodge Safety Checklist is a requirement for the Grand Master's Lodge of Excellence Award. The checklist is located in the District Deputy Handbook. Until next time—be safe.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

Congratulations to our new Right Worshipful Grand Junior Warden Luke Martin 32° KCCH, may your travels through the Grand Line of Kentucky Masons be a rewarding and meaningful journey.

Thinking of Masonic Journeys, how are your travels going ? Are you attending your Blue Lodge on a somewhat regular basis ? Brethren, we have to do what we can to support our Blue Lodge, the very foundation of Freemasonry. I hope to do better myself. Are you attending your Consistory Meetings ? Your attendance and service are very much appreciated.

Check your Consistories Website, they may have their 2023 Calendar of Events posted. There are several opportunities to take your family for a nice dinner and Program. All you need to do is RSVP.

January is a month for renewal. Let`s renew our obligations to our Lodge and our Brothers. Is there a member of our Fraternity that you are at odds with ? Now would be a good time to reach out and settle your differences amicably.

May our Heavenly Father Bless you and your Families. I sincerely hope and pray you had a Merry Christmas and Happy Hanukkah!

SGIG, Orient of Kentucky

2022 YEAR IN REVIEW

Greetings from the Brothers of Western Kentucky: I hope your holidays were happy and blessed.

2022 started out as a year of recovery from the destructive tornadoes that struck in December of 2021. However, the love of God and charitable contributions made by the brothers throughout Kentucky, other states, and even other countries were outstanding. Our Consistory gladly donated our building as a distribution center and contributions were distributed.

Although it was painful to see the areas of our Commonwealth that were devastated by tornadoes and flooding, the brothers of West Kentucky Consistory refused to become discouraged. Choosing to focus on the blessings of charity and teamwork, we began to set some goals in 2022. Our first goal was a new refrigerator. The second to replace our zero turn lawn mower. (Pictured Brother Bruce Outlaw K.C.C.H. 32°)

A third goal was to seal and stripe our parking lot. Yet another goal was new griddles for the kitchen. (Pictured Brothers Jim Horn, 33° and Randy Ware, 33° after receiving new griddles from “Santa”)

Through the contributions of clubs and brothers we were successful in meeting all of our goals. Many of our brothers like to be anonymous in their giving. Instead, our celebration is in the collective efforts of many. Looking forward, the brothers of West Kentucky plan to continue setting and reaching for more and loftier goals. Although West Kentucky Consistory will be dark in January and February, plans are being made for a great year, and I am excited to see what 2023 has in store for us.

May GOD continue to bless you throughout this Holiday Season,

Douglas W. Bunch, 32° KCCH Personal Representative

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

Spending New Year’s Eve with Masonic Friends? Perhaps at the midnight hour, you may want to forego singing the traditional “Auld Lang Syne” written by Brother Robert Burns, and sing together the Masonic version. Rob Morris, Past Grand Master of Kentucky wrote a variation of Brother Robert Burns’ original “Auld Lang Syne” poem. Both authors were named at different times, “Poet Laureate of Freemasonry”, and are the only two, ever so named. Here is Brother Morris’s version, titled “Masonic Auld Lang Syne”

MASONIC AULD LANG SYNE

By Rob Morris, PGM of Kentucky, Poet Laureate of Freemasonry

*We do not sigh for pleasures put, - Nor fondly, vainly pine;
Yet let us give one memory - To Auld Lang Syne.*

With Gavel, Trowel, Gauge, we work, - With Level, Square, and Line; Come, Join the Chain of Love, and sing - Of Auld Lang Syne!

For Auld Lang Syne, my dear, - For Auld Lang Syne; Ah, who like us can sing the days - Of Auld Lang Syne!

*’Twas sweet when evening’s shadow’s fell -
How bright our Lights did shine!*

Down from the East to hear the words - Of Auld Lang Syne.

*The ‘Prentice knocked with trembling hand, -
The Craft sought Oil and Wine,*

The Master stood, and nobly fell, - In Auld Lang Syne.

*With step so true, with form upright, - We drew the Grand Design;
’Twas well we knew “to square the work,” - In Auld Lang Syne.*

*A tear to them, The Early Dead, - Fond memory would consign:
We dropped the green sprig o’er their head, - In Auld Lang Syne.*

And till the Master call us hence - To join the Lodge Divine, Let’s sometimes give a grateful thought - To Auld Lang Syne!
