GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

E. DARREN WILSON
Grand Master 2022-2023

Brothers, July is upon us and with it comes our annual celebration of Freedom, Independence, Sacrifice, and National Pride. As we celebrate our independence, we must not forget to honor those who have served and sacrificed to protect our way of life, including the freedom to freely assemble and specifically our freedom to meet and practice our gentle craft. As we take time to enjoy the warm weather and Celebration of Independence with our friends and family, let us not forget that summer temperatures can present a danger to some of our more vulnerable brethren. As the thermometer rises, we ought to be mindful of our brothers who may not have air conditioning or suitable relief from the heat and take time to check on them, let them know we care, and that they can reach out to their brothers if help is needed.

One of the many benefits of becoming a Master Mason is the right to travel and visit lodges other than your own. The ability to travel and visit has been a blessing to me. I have had the pleasure to visit numerous lodges across our Commonwealth, have made many lifelong friends, and created many lasting memories. I have always been made to feel at home and it's been a joy to help when called upon. It has been my honor to visit other Grand Lodges outside of our jurisdiction and I can tell you it has been a great experience. I have learned much from our out of state brethren and made many lifelong friendships and memories on those trips as well. Simply put, Visitation is the gift that keeps on giving. The friendships and bonds we make as we travel are returned many times over, especially when those we have visited take time to attend our Annual Grand Session and support us in times of need or celebration.

With our District meetings now complete, I want to thank the many who contributed to the success. Attendance was remarkable; most all districts had an increase in participation. The food and fellowship was outstanding, we even enjoyed a few tacos together! The educational presentations by the Lodges of Research were much appreciated and I want to thank the Lodges of Research who chose to participate. Great things happen when we work together!

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky Car show will be held on July 15th from 10:00-3:00 pm at the Masonic Homes of Kentucky Louisville Campus. There will be food and drinks available, a DJ, and a silent auction. The proceeds benefit Masonic Care. I am sure a great time will be had by all in attendance, and I hope to see as many of you as possible at this exciting event.

As always, "We are our Brother's Keeper" and remember our active-duty military and first responders in your thoughts and prayers.

Fraternally Thine,
E. Darren Wilson

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

As we celebrate the 4th of July, let us remember the many Blessings that our Heavenly Father has allowed us to have. We can not be apathetic to the Freedoms and the many advantages we have living in this great Country of ours. Remembering the men and women who sacrificed their lives for those very freedoms and for those that are serving now.

Since the beginning of our nation, our Fraternity has led the way in establishing those freedoms to worship God as we choose, to vote as we choose, to come and go as we choose. That what binds us together as the cement of Brotherly and Affection for one another. Our Country desperately needs us more than ever. The ability to meet on a common level and to part on common ground.

As Freemasons, one of our main areas of attention should be our Youth Groups. These young men and women are the future of our Craft and our nation. The moral principles taught to them by very dedicated adult leadership is worth our efforts to assist all we can. If you can help in any way to make them successful, please contact the Leader of their group, who can be found on the inside back page of the Masonic Home Journal.

Brothers, please visit your Consistory on your first opportunity. They will be most glad to see you and greet you with a firm and friendly handshake. As us Masons like a good meal, there may be one of those as well.

May our Heavenly Father continue to Bless you and yours!

Terry L. Bowman, PGM, 33°

THE GREATEST BATTLES YOU WILL EVER FACE ARE IN YOUR MIND

“For as [a man] thinks in his heart, so is he.” (Proverbs 23:7)

As a kid growing up I loved climbing: climbing trees, climbing TV antennas, getting on top of roofs, going to the top tier in the tobacco barn housing tobacco. There were times when I would get an adrenaline rush or a thought that I might die, but I always talked myself out of fear. Later on climbing became important to my career. I own a painting and wallpapering business. Climbing ladders is just part of the life I live.

Over the years, I have had employees who have a fear of heights. One girl in particular was terrified of climbing ladders. She would use a 6 foot ladder in a room with 8 foot ceilings. She would climb 2 steps (2 feet) and no higher. (By the way, she was 5 foot 10). It took me several years to teach her ladder safety, and I had to hold her ladder and gain her trust. Eventually the day came when I saw her boldly set up a 24 foot extension ladder, climb up the side of a 2 story house and start painting.

What changed her behavior? It wasn't my years of climbing experience or my outstanding teaching abilities. It was her mindset. With a little help and encouragement, she had decided that she would try.

We have brothers in our fraternity who haven't attended lodge in a very long time because of their negative mindset. They don't think anyone will know them, or they don't remember the words or signs. Some of them don't drive, or at least not at night. Approximately 20% of the membership of KY Masonry is involved. That leaves approximately 80% of the membership who have little or nothing to do with the fraternity other than pay dues. Some of these brothers after several years ask themselves “why do I still belong?” “I don't attend, and I'm wasting money.” When these members get older, someone else may make the decision not to spend money on dues because they don't attend. We need to address this issue and come up with solutions, letting our brothers know they are not forgotten. We could offer to drive them or visit them and practice ritual work. With a little help and encouragement, they might change their negative thinking and decide to try again.

This month, as we celebrate Independence Day, consider the overwhelming odds our forefathers faced against the greatest military at that time, and how God delivered them against all odds. I believe we are still the greatest fraternity the world has ever known, and I am seeing men who are hungry for what we offer join our ranks. Now is not the time to lose hope and give up. We have reinforcements on the way. Those of us who are able must help each other just as Paul instructed the church at Thessalonica. “Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.” (1 Thessalonians 5:11)

May GOD Bless You as we reach toward the future in unity,

Douglas W. Bunch, 32° KCCH Personal Representative

COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

Although briefly covered in Charles Snow Guthrie’s “Kentucky Freemasonry – 1788-1978”, it may surprise some Kentucky brothers to learn that Stephen F. Austin (1793-1836), the Father of Texas, was briefly a Kentucky Mason. He served as the first Jr. Warden of Potosi Lodge #39, chartered by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, August 28, 1816, albeit in Washington County, Missouri territory. He had earlier attended Lexington’s Transylvania College, graduating in 1810. In Potosi Lodge’s return of 1818 to the Kentucky Grand Lodge, it shows Stephen F. Austin, his brother, James, and future great friend and business associate, Josiah H. Bell as Master Masons. The Master was Andrew Scott. Brother Hall would later become instrumental in the push for schools in Texas. Potosi #39 would last but three years, ceasing to exist at this Grand Lodge session.

Brother Guthrie further states that the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, formed in 1800, was the only Grand Lodge west of the Appalachians, followed by the Grand Lodge of Ohio in 1809. Kentucky also was responsible for forming the very first lodges in: Mississippi territory (Harmony #7, Natchez-1801), Indiana (Vincennes #15-1809), Huntsville, Alabama (Madison #21- 1812) and Arkansas Post (Arkansas #59- 1820.) Other states/territories with lodges chartered by Kentucky, included Ohio, Illinois, Louisiana, Tennessee and as previously noted, Missouri.

According to “Masonry in Texas: Background, History and Influence to 1846”, authored by James D. Carter, and published by the Committee on Masonic Education and Service (G.L.Texas-1955), Austin received the Apprentice degrees on May 1 and his Fellowcraft and Master Mason degrees on June 23, 1815, in Louisiana Lodge #109, St. Genevieve, Louisiana. This lodge, chartered by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, would close shortly after Austin’s membership, and those brethren living in Potosi petitioned the Grand Lodge of Kentucky for a charter, receiving the name and number, Potosi Lodge #59.

In 1819, Austin relocated in Arkansas Post, the capital of Arkansas Territory, to accept a position as Judge of the First Judicial Circuit (1820), by territory Governor and Freemason James Miller. Also in 1819, a group of Masons from Arkansas Post petitioned the Grand Lodge of Kentucky to form Arkansas Lodge U.D. The #59 was assigned sometime in 1820. The lodge Master was Andrew Scott, former Master of Potosi #39. Stephen Fuller Austin is not listed among the members. This lodge would last but a few years. Carter states that Austin was then a member of St. Louis Lodge #111. In his comments on Potosi Lodge, Carter does not mention Stephen Austin, even though he served as Jr. Warden of the Kentucky chartered lodge.

Stephen F. Austin - Father of Texas

Moses Austin, Steven’s father, had received an empresario grant to bring American families to Texas. His death left Stephen to carry out his father’s wishes. By 1825, Stephen had brought 300 families to Austin Colony and would receive contracts for 900 more families. The large influx of American families into Austin Colony, led Stephen to want to start a Masonic Lodge, but when the Mexican government objected, he felt it wise to abandon the idea.

The first lodge in Mexico City appeared in 1806. ‘York’ freemasonry grew rapidly among the elite, and yet it would become extremely political. The thought of American Masons meeting secretly in Austin Colony, distressed the Mexican government. The lack of trust seemed fuel to the objection. However there were many Mexican Masons who fully supported Austin Colony and the desire for a Masonic Lodge within. It wasn’t until the winter of 1834-1835 when six Masons met formally behind a large oak tree and voted to ask for a dispensation from Grand Lodge of Louisiana for to establish Holland Lodge, named for the Louisiana Grandmaster, M.W. J.H. Holland. Unfortunately, those records (before April 21, 1836) were destroyed by the Mexican army during the Revolution, but Holland Lodge #36 did become Holland #1 under the Grand Lodge of the Republic of Texas. Their first meeting was on April 16, 1838.

Many Kentuckians had championed the Texas’ fight for independence with many also settling there. “Masonry in Texas” lists the lodges in those states,” that contributed the major portion of early Texas colonists between 1788 and 1821.” Fifty-seven lodges founded by Kentucky’s Grand Lodge are recorded.

Stephen F. Austin had given his whole life to the Texas cause. The “Father of Texas” would be appointed as the first Secretary of the State of the Texas Republic in 1836, by his masonic brother of equal fame, and the first President of the Texas Republic, Sam Houston. Undoubtedly, Stephen Austin’s dedication to the Texas cause, was somewhat influenced by Transylvania College, and his Masonic membership, including the Kentucky lodge at Potosi, Missouri.
