GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

RICHARD F. "DICK" SHORT

Grand Master 2023-2024

Brothers This Year is moving fast. Seems like Christmas was here then January hit and we are still moving fast forward. I hope everyone enjoyed the online Education training and that it will help us all improve our lodges. Febuary is here and we will be conducting an in-person training for secretaries. I encourage all secretaries to attend, even those of us that have been doing it for a few years can benifit from the class.

This month we will be having All Masons Day at the state capital on Feb 6th. Breakfast will be at Hiram 4 that morning with a Master Mason Re-Obligation Held after breakfast at Hiram lodge. Then after lunch we will be at the Capitol for recognition by both houses. Only Grand Lodge officers are requested to wear aprons and jewel according to the Capitol administration.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky will be represented at the Conference of Grand Masters of North America being held in Seattle Washington this year in February. This is a great opportunity to share ideas and issues with other Grand Jurisdictions.

We are going to be into our District meetings begining in March and i encourage all to attend your districts meeting. Brothers get active in your lodge if you have not been in a while, your lodge needs you. Take the time to visit a lodge you have never been to before and i promise you it will be a good experience of fellowship.

Last thing brothers, live up to our obligations, follow our constitution and your lodge bylaws.

Fraternally Thine,
Richard F. "Dick" Short

Helping Kentucky Masons
Navigate Aging Care Services

Since 1867, Kentucky Masons have cared for one and another. That legacy continues today and through Kentucky Compass which connects Kentucky Masons, members of affiliated organizations and immediate family members with in-forma-tion, resources and recommendations from Masonic Homes' key counselors to help guide decisions about aging care anywhere in Kentucky.

Kentucky Compass will be launched at District Meetings starting in March. Plan to attend to learn more about the program, a part of Masonic Homes' Charitable Care programs.

We took hand-made Christmas Cards and over $4,000.00 of presents the staff said the Veterans could use. Later on we visited the Owingsville Manor and Ridgeway Nursing homes to take presents and Christmas cards to the Veterans there. Thank You to everyone that helped make these Veterans Christmas much brighter.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

February is usually the coldest month of the year. Most of us don't get out of the house only to run errands and attend Church, Consistory or Lodge meetings. There is always someone we miss doing this time, as in our Senior Members. I have to admit, I am not the best to call and check on Members like I should, but am going to do better.

Brothers, we all need to contact our Elder Members and see how they are doing. Ask them if they would like a ride to Lodge or to the Consistory. Maybe they may need something from the store or a simple errand ran for them.

Let's all rekindle that Masonic spirit of attending our Scottish Rite Consistory. It's a great place to spent with great Brothers like yourself. Your Consistory thanks the brothers who regularly attend and for the New Year, let them add you to that list as well. There is a place for you to be active at your Consistory if you so choose.

Let me also thank all our members who serve on our Foundation Boards and to all Scottish Rite Clubs in the Orient.

I sincerely hope and pray that you and your family had a Joyous and Safe Holiday Season. Please call your Consistory if you have any questions concerning Membership or meeting dates.

Take care and May God Bless !

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION
COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

"I Didn't Know That....."

One Masonic curiosity can be found in a book titled "History of Rhode Island" printed by John S. Taylor, New York, 1853 and authored by the Rev. Edward Patterson. On pages 101-102 of the 400 page history, we find:

MASONIC FRATERNITY "In the spring of 1658, Mordecai Campannell, Moses Packeckoe, Levi, and others, in all fifteen families, arrived at Newport from Holland. They brought with them the three first degrees of masonry, and worked them in the house of Campannell, and continued to do so, they and their successors, to the year 1742." -Taken from the Documents now in possession of N. H. Gould, Esq.

We have noticed this institution from the fact of its having been said to be "the oldest body in the United States." It is in a flourishing condition, numbering about one hundred and fifty members."

The above caught the Masonic eye, when Brother J. L. Gould of Connecticut, cited the above in his in publication, "Guide to the Chapter," dated 1868, New York, in which he included: "a lodge organized in Rhode Island , A.D. 1658, or fifty-nine years before the revival in England, and seventy-five years before the establishment of the first lodge in Massachusetts."

Seeking the facts, Grand Master Gardner of Massachusetts, wrote to Brother N.H. Gould, Esq. who had moved to Texas. Brother Gould replied that a distant relative of his had passed away, herself a relative of a former Governor, whose estate was administered by Gould's father. In an old beaten up trunk was found some papers including a scrap of paper reading, "Ths ye (day and month obliterated) 1656 (or 8, not certain which, &c.) Wee mett att y House off Mordecai Campunnall, and after Synogog Wee gave Abm Moses the degrees of Maconrie." Gould added that the heavily worn paper along with the old papers were "nicely enveloped and packed away in his house securely, but not where he can at present put his hand upon them." His full reply can be found in the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts – 1870, page 358.

Search was made of the Masons in and around Newport, Rhode Island and nothing found. Of course this story is easy to disclaim, as did almost every Mason who scrutinized it. Masonry before the first Grand Lodge in 1717, was purely Christian in character. It would be difficult for anyone of the Jewish faith to accept the fully Christian practices. Jewish members were heartily welcomed into the Masonic Fraternity after the Grand Lodge was formed, when the new lodge system required that members be only of the Religion in which all men can agree, leaving their particular opinions to themselves.

The three degrees mentioned in the "History of Rhode Island" became just "degrees" in Gould's reply. Degrees (two) did exist in Scotland in the later part of the seventeenth century. England did not practice three degree system until after 1720. The Jewish families mentioned were from the Netherlands where they left because maltreatment. The date cannot be defined, and then we have the problem of "no original" to examine and possibly date through the type of paper or ink.

This is typical of so many of this style of stories. Someone died, usually a relative, leaving some Masonic papers which would change much what we thought we knew about Freemasonry. The date is usually difficult to discern, and the original is lost. This is a tactic found in anti-masonry, but it is absolutely senseless for a brother Mason to do so. Masonry easily stands on its own, true history. It does not need to be falsely enhanced or possibly, was there some selfish reason?
What do you think?

A thorough account of the above, can be found on the "Grand Lodge of British Columbia and Yukon Website: History Index /Early Freemasonry," but perhaps the most detailed version is established in the "Freemasonry in Rhode Island – 1891, Memorial Volume" published by the Grand Lodge of Rhode Island. Henry Wilson Coil in his 1961 edition "Coil's Masonic Encyclopedia" briefly relates the story. Both books are available at the Masonic Library Covington Scottish Rite, 1553 Madison Avenue, Covington, KY 41011. The Library is open the first and third Tuesdays (5:30pm -7:30 pm, and the first four Wednesdays (6:00 pm – 8:00 pm) each month or for a special appointment email Bill Lorenz, Librarian – library.covsr@outlook.com
